You Are Welcome

READ YOUR BIBLE DAILY! All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works.--II Tim. 3: 16,17.

Search the Scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.--Jn. 5:39

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path.
--Ps. 119:105

Thy word is truth.--Jn. 17:17

Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.--Matt. 24:35

Lord to whom shall we go? Thou hast the words of eternal life.--Jn. 6:68

And now brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.--Acts 20:32

The last Sunday in January a Bible Class for Adults was formed with the Students-in-charge as teachers. A study is being made of the life of Jesus based on the Gospel according to Luke. The session is held at the close of each evening Service and all who are sincerely interested in the study of the Holy Scriptures are invited.

Henceforth only the Revised Edition of Luther's Small Catechism (the small blue ones) will be used in the instruction of the children. This will avoid confusion.

Members of our Parish can do much to further its cause by earnest and consistent Inner Mission Work. If your acquaintances are sick or needy, visit with them, do for them any little tasks you may find to do. Of worldly goods you may have few to give, but radiate comfort and cheer where you go. Particularly interest yourself in those without a church home. Invite them not to go to your church, but have them come with you. Give their names and addresses to the Students-in-charge. If they have children let yours bring these to the periods of Instruction. There are still about ten weeks until Easter. Let us try, each one of us, to bring to Christ before that time at least one. Lutheranism is not merely believing something -- it is having a conviction that is so strong that it influences our whole lives, private as well as public -- it is having an experience which is so high that we endeavor to share it with others. Let us be Lutherans in fact as well as in name!

To those of our people who may doubt the value of a Liturgy there should come with interest the announcement from the Lutheran Church of Hungary (which up until now had a very simple Order of Service) that the Bishop, D.D. Sandor Raffay has edited a new Liturgy based on the order prepared by Luther. He says that a "return to the old time-honored Liturgy of Luther was necessary for the spiritual deepening of the Church."
