

THE EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN SEMINARY OF CANADA

WATERLOO

ONTARIO

April 7, 1927

Dear Mother:

As I didn't get around to writing to you Saturday night - I will try to give you a few lines tonight. I had quite a trip to-day - to Toronto and back. I left Waterloo this morning by Radial at 6:50 o'clock, went to Galt and took the C.P.R., arrived in the city at 8:25, preached in First Lutheran Church at 11 a.m., and was back home at 6:20 p.m. This was quick work, and I received $45 for the day, clearing about $11, which wasn't too bad, all things considered. But I am feeling a little tired tonight. Next Sunday I have agreed to preach for Dr. Mavor, which is a thank you job. I don't feel under particular obligation to him; but he is having it pretty hard just now, and as Dr. Willison is still laid up and Dr. Zwick is gone and he has no one to help him out, I agreed to do so. Marion was confirmed this morning. As I was away, Bonnie also could not go. So only the boys and Ellen of the family saw her confirmed; but Bonnie says she is quite sure Marion looked as well as any of them in her white rig. There were 36 in the class to be confirmed, and the whole service was in English this morning. On the 24th, the Sunday after Easter, I am to go down to Toronto again. The most objectionable feature to this is the early rising. I had to get up a little after 4 this morning in order to make my connections. However, I caught up a little by sleeping on the train. I suppose you have received
