Dear Mother: I have just got back from Hespeles, where I preached to-day, morning and evening, and will try to give you a few lines between now and bed-time. As to-morrow is our Canadian Thanksgiving Day, I preached a thanksgiving sermon to-night. We will have a holiday to-morrow; and as everything will be closed up tight, there will probably be no mail collection and my letter will reach you a day or so late; but that isn't my fault. We are having winter now, at least "Eggnaw winter". It descended on us all of a sudden. We had a few snow squalls yesterday and the ground was quite white this morning and it was cold enough to keep most of it there all day. Pastor Fischer from Wellsville, one of our boys, was around to see me Friday night to get me to preach the English sermon at the dedication of his new Church to-day; but I couldn't do so, as I was already booked up for Hespeles. Pastor Fischer is called to Hespeles and will take charge when the first Sunday in Advent. I have been preaching most of the English sermons there
