Author Lawrence Hill gives special screening of The Book of Negroes at Laurier

WATERLOO – Acclaimed Canadian author Lawrence Hill will visit Wilfrid Laurier University’s Waterloo campus Jan. 15, where he will interact with students and present a special screening of an episode from the CBC television adaptation of his 2007 novel, The Book of Negroes.

Hill will take part in a question-and-answer session with students and guests in the afternoon. In the evening, Hill will be joined by Clement Virgo, director and co-writer of the CBC adaptation of The Book of Negroes, to host a special screening of the mini-series’ third episode in the evening.

Both events are open to media and the public.
