

HOUSE OF COMMONS
CANADA

Leader of the Opposition

Ottawa, June 5, 1931

His Worship C. Mortimer Bezeau,
Mayor,
Kitchener,
Ontario.

My dear Bezeau:

I am sorry to have been so long in acknowledging your letter of some days ago. I shall, of course, be careful not to bring either yourself or the city of which you are the worthy Mayor into any controversy in discussions on the unemployment problem.

It is interesting, however, to see how literally fulfilled has been all that I said with respect to the concern of the Tory party for unemployment.

I am very sorry that your great modesty and considerateness of the time of others prevented you from letting me know that you were in the city some days ago. Please never come to Ottawa without giving me a chance for at least a few words with you. I missed seeing in the press any reference to the gathering at which you
