My dear Bezeau:

I appreciate very much your kindness in writing me with reference to the radio broadcast of Monday night. I am glad to know that what I said has met so completely with your approval as well as that of others.

I have been much distressed to learn of Mrs. Bezeau's illness. I cannot express too sincerely the deep sympathy I feel for you both. I trust that Mrs. Bezeau may soon be completely restored in health, and that you and she may be spared to each other through many years to come.

With kindest regards,

Yours very sincerely,

W. M. Mackenzie King
