

Ottawa, February 20, 1939.

C. Mortimer Bezeau, Esq.,
12 Ellen Street East,
Kitchener, Ontario.

My dear Bezeau:

I thank you for the kind and encouraging words of your letter of February the 16th, and regret that, at the moment, I have opportunity for only this line of acknowledgment. It is a source of encouragement and satisfaction to me to know that the trade treaties recently concluded with the United States have commended themselves so strongly to your judgment, and that the policies of the Liberal Party in general also meet with your approval. It was characteristically thoughtful of you to write me as you have.

With kind regards and all good wishes,

Believe me, as always,

Yours very sincerely,

Maclean King
