

Geneva, September 2, 1928.

Dear Mrs. Heather,

I have just received the note you so kindly left at the Hotel this morning, and am pleased to learn from it that you and Major Heather expect to be in Geneva for some time.

I shall look forward to the pleasure of seeing you both while here. I am sorry I missed you when you called.

With kindest remembrances,

Yours very sincerely,

W. W. King
