
AUGUST

APART from the considerations of the social order, from the love of peace and public freedom, our common interests would alone establish sympathies which sooner or later must have rendered the mutual co-operation of the mass of the two populations necessary to the march of government.

HON. L. H. LAFONTAINE - 1841 - Quebec.

1 FRIDAY
1922.—Mr. P. C. Larkin appointed Canadian High Commissioner.

2 SATURDAY
1908.—University of British Columbia established.

3 SUNDAY
1914.—Acquisition by Canada of two submarines for Pacific Coast.

4 MONDAY
1914.—War with Germany declared.

5 TUESDAY
1919.—Liberal Convention opened in Ottawa.

6 WEDNESDAY
1922.—Canada has 60 Trust Companies; assets of $750,000,000.

7 THURSDAY
1919.—Wm. Lyon Mackenzie King chosen as leader of Liberal Party.

8 FRIDAY
1852.—Grand Trunk Railway chartered.

9 SATURDAY
Canada now leads the world in volume of exports $150 per capita.

10 SUNDAY
1873.—7000 British emigrants arrived in Canada.

11 MONDAY
1911.—Rodolphe Lemieux made minister of Marine and Fisheries.

12 TUESDAY
1914.—War with Austria-Hungary declared by Great Britain.

13 WEDNESDAY
Canada has 135,000 mental defectives.

14 THURSDAY
The United Kingdom is Canada's best customer.

15 FRIDAY
1919.—Arrival at St. John, N.B., of H.R.H. The Prince of Wales.

Whoever cultivates the common ground the most will get the biggest crop, but neighborly co-operation is needed to house the full harvest.