HAMILTON EXECUTIVE NAMED

TO UNIVERSITY BOARD

John H. Reble, of Burlington, a 39-year-old executive officer of the International Harvester Company of Canada, Ltd., is the newest member of the board of governors of Waterloo Lutheran University.

The appointment was announced today by Dr. William J. Villaume, president of the university.

Mr. Reble administers his company's health and welfare plans across Canada from the general office in Hamilton. He is a graduate of McMaster University.

Active in church affairs, Mr. Reble has been chairman of building-fund drives for churches in Montreal, Oakville and Calgary.

He is a son of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Reble of Kitchener; and a brother of two ministers, Rev. Eric Reble, a missionary to South India, now home on furlough, and Rev. Otto F. Reble of Weston, regional secretary for home missions of the Lutheran Church in America.
