GRADUATE OF WUC WINS FELLOWSHIP

AT CINCINNATI UNIVERSITY

Mr. Peter Homenuck, who won the senior honour award for the 1963 class at Waterloo University College, has been awarded a teaching fellowship by the University of Cincinnati.

The fellowship is one of 50 offered by the university and is worth $2000 plus $680 towards the tuition fee of $780. Mr. Homenuck will work in the Department of Geography and Regional Planning and will teach introductory geography two hours a week while studying for his Master of Arts degree.

Since graduation he has been working as Director of Education and Publicity for the United Packinghouse Workers of America, and has edited the organization's monthly journal.

Mr. Homenuck was born in Toronto. In the past he won a scholarship from the Pelham District High School, and in his second year at WUC received a dominion-provincial bursary. He will enter the University of Cincinnati on October 7.
