ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR NAMED

BY WATERLOO UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

Howard B. Lockhart, 28, a teacher and head basketball coach in a San Antonio, Texas, high school will become assistant director of athletics at Waterloo University College in September.

The college is the arts and science faculty of Waterloo Lutheran University.

Mr. Lockhart, who will receive his master's degree in physical education this summer, will assist David Knight, the college's director of athletics.

The new assistant taught mathematics for the past two years at Luther Burbank High School, San Antonio, and was head basketball coach, assisting in football. He is six-foot-five-inches and weighs 225 pounds.

In a varied sports career, Mr. Lockhart attended Del Mar College, Corpus Christi, Texas, on a football scholarship. He played on the college's championship football team and participated in basketball, lettering in both. Later, at Southwest Texas State College, he played on the championship basketball team and took part in the Olympic trials at Denver.

In addition, Mr. Lockhart has spent three summers as counsellor at Camp Longhorn, the largest summer camp in Texas, and presently is camp director at Camp Texoma, Durant, Okla.
