KITCHENER PIANIST TO GIVE

RECITAL AT WATERLOO LUTHERAN UNIVERSITY

Ruth Watson Henderson, outstanding Kitchener pianist, will present a concert at Waterloo Lutheran University on Oct. 28 at 8:30 p.m. as the first presentation of the university's recently formed cultural affairs committee.

Miss Henderson will play on the university's Steinway concert grand piano.

Born in Toronto, Miss Henderson studied at the Royal Conservatory of Music, Toronto, with Viggo Kihl and Alberto Guerrero, and was graduated with the associate diploma and licentiate degree. She pursued further study for two years in New York with Hans Neumann at the Mannes College of Music.

Since returning to Canada, the artist has given recitals over the CBC and has appeared as soloist with orchestras in Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and Regina, as well as with the Kitchener-Waterloo Symphony. She is a teacher as well as organist and choirleader at Forest Hill United Church where her husband is minister.

Her program will include Bach's Italian Concerto, Prokofieff's Third Piano Sonata, and compositions by Mozart, Chopin and Brahms.
