Wayne Holst, 10 Young St. E., Waterloo, a theological student at Waterloo Lutheran University, has received a $1,500 graduate award that will allow him to study in Europe.

Mr. Holst, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Holst of St. Jacobs, will graduate this spring with a Bachelor of Divinity degree from Waterloo Lutheran Seminary, the university's graduate school of theology.

He will use the Lutheran Brotherhood Graduate Award to accept an opportunity given him by the World Council of Churches to attend the Graduate School of Ecumenical Studies, University of Geneva, Bossey, Switzerland.

Accompanying him to Europe will be his wife, the former Eleanor Snider of Waterloo, who presently is secretary to Waterloo Lutheran University's chief librarian.
