Room and Board Fees Increased

By $75 at Waterloo Lutheran

In order to offset rising operational costs, Waterloo Lutheran University will increase its room fees by $50 and its seven-day meal ticket fee by $25 for the next academic year. There will be no change in tuition fees for full-time students.

The new rate structure will mean that a double room with seven-day board for the year will cost $825. A single room with board will cost $860. Arts and science tuition fees remain at $520 but part-time students fees will rise by $10 a course.

Dr. Henry Endress, acting president, said a recent survey indicates that room and board rates established at other Ontario universities for 1968-69 will generally be in the range of $900 to $1,000.

"We are pleased to be able to provide comparable accommodation and good food at a lower than average cost."
