Flowers for Macdonald Sent

To Restore Regard For Youth

Lieut.-Gov. W. Ross Macdonald had barely got over the shock of being robbed in his Brantford, Ont., home by two youthful intruders when he received a big bouquet of flowers from another group of youths.

The card read "To help sustain your faith in youth," and was signed by the Students Council of Waterloo Lutheran University. The lieutenant-governor serves the university as chancellor and is greatly beloved on campus.

The day after the robbery, for which two youths are now in custody, Mr. Macdonald delivered a talk to the Junior Chamber of Commerce in Toronto on The Challenge of Youth. He delivered it unchanged without reference to the robbery.
