Awards Night Honors Top Students

With WLU Awards and Scholarships

Three Ontario students who averaged 90 per cent or more in grade 13 and entered Waterloo Lutheran University will receive the university's Centennial Scholarships Thursday night at 8 p.m. in Room 1E1 Arts Building during the presentation of entrance, undergraduate and graduate awards.

Receiving Centennial Scholarships are Susan Bailey of 365 Whitmore Drive, Waterloo; Gail Hamilton of Burlington; and Susan Jane Hefford, 50 Westmount Road, West, Kitchener.

Each scholarship has an annual value of free tuition and fees, free room and board and $300 in cash. If the winning students maintain the equivalent of an 85 per cent average during their years at WLU, the total value would exceed $6,500 each.

In addition 41 Faculty-Board Scholarships will be awarded to students who entered the university this fall after achieving an 80 per cent standing in grade 13. The scholarships have an annual value of $400. And 48 Proficiency Scholarships will go to high school students with a 75 per cent average in grade 13. These scholarships carry an annual value of $250.

Other prizes and awards include 41 Scholarships awarded to grade 12 students who entered WLU after achieving high marks in high school and receiving high marks in WLU's Summer Session.
