$1,000 Brent Scholarships Presented

To WLU Business and Economics Students

John H. Butler, 282 Lourdes Crescent, Waterloo, has been awarded a $1,000 Brent Scholarship at Waterloo Lutheran University, the second-year in a row he has won the award.

The scholarships, donated by John Brent, chairman of the Board of IBM Canada Ltd., are awarded each year to the top student in the first, second and third years in the School of Business and Economics at the university.

Mr. Brent began his university education at the former Waterloo College, which has become Waterloo Lutheran University, and later served the university as pro-chancellor.

winners this year are Gary F. Ware of West Hill, Ont., first-year top student who is now in his second year; Mr. Butler, second year; and Peter J. Connell of London, England, third-year.

Presenting the awards on behalf of IBM Canada were Grant Wallace, the new Kitchener branch manager; and Mervin Hanson, Kitchener marketing manager.

The awards were presented at a luncheon on campus.
