

A BRIGHT, SPARKLING MUSICAL PLAY

CAST WILL INCLUDE ARRAY OF NOTABLES

in so many performances, in both amateur and professional productions, that we will not begin to enumerate them.

Mrs. Norma Hopkins Bosworth makes her premier appearance in Winnetka, but her fame in other parts, particularly in St. Louis and Milwaukee, follows her here. You may have heard her in the air on K S D. Her renditions of the music as an Indian Princess are par excellent.

Miss Bessie Andrus is another "find" for the North Shore, and we feel greatly honored to have her in the cast. Her concert work in Chicago, as a coloratura soprano, has been wonderful. Her experience with The Redpath Company for three years, has given her the opportunity to start out this year with her own company. She very ably portrays the character of Major Harwood's ward, Bobsie Farquhar.

Stars in Community Plays

Mrs. Harry Barnum has been associated with the "Community Players" ever since its organization. She was a member of the cast in "Milestones" and as Mrs. Harwood in "Married at Three," she shows her exceptional talent.

Howard H. Hoyt, who becomes a successful young advertising, Lansaul Little by name, needs no explanation of his dramatic ability. He has appeared in numerous plays and sketches and can always be counted on to fill the bill.

Russell E. MacCullough blossoms out as a new comer in our theatrical circles. He shows wonderful talent and we know in his important part as Major Harwood, he will surprise even himself with the success of his efforts.

Dr. Davies Lazear will be well remembered in the North Shore Theatre Guild production "Fashions". He adds a great deal to this year's Legion Show.

Works and "Plays"

Tom Brown, who is working hard as the general chairman of the Show Committee, is Prince Raghaji. He has untiring energy and always puts over "big" whatever he undertakes. He did very well in last year's show, and makes the best Indian Prince we know. And besides, he has the whole responsibility of making the 1925 show a success, financially and otherwise.

Lloyd Faxon, Sam Smart and R. L. Stoddard have minor parts.

but are doing very well in them. Mr. Faxon had the "lead" in Don, just staged last week by "The Community Players," while Mr. Smart was in the cast of "The Red Robe."

To give you the best possible musical play, the cast has been rehearsing for the last six weeks and are planning to continue on a nightly basis from now until the first performance.

Besides these faithful men and women, Miss Marion Lasier has been at the regular rehearsals to play the piano accompaniment. Besides Miss Lasier, Mrs. William D. McAdams, Miss Clara Harsh, Mrs. Parke J. Keeney, and Mrs. Ernst von Ammon have rotated as accompanists. We know that it's a lot different to play for the enjoyment of it rather than stop and start many times in rehearsals. We appreciate their kindness and patience to make "Married at 3" a wonderful success.

Chorus Crowded with Talent

It is interesting to know that in some of the "numbers" of the chorus, for both men and women have as many as six changes in steps. Even professional shows usually have only four, and then work hard to perfect them.

We are publishing in another section, a list of the men and women in the chorus. We appreciate the many hours that they have put into rehearsals but their reward will come when the orchestra plays in the pit and they are giving you three hours of amusement from behind the footlights.

NEED BIG STAFF FOR THIS SHOW

"Married at Three" Enlists Services of Numerous Winnetka Leaders

TOM BROWN AT HEAD

Every Phase of Production Expertly Handled

My! how a lot of people work to put over big such an elaborate play as "Married at Three." Back of the scenes are many who have cooperated to the maximum degree. The general chairman is Tom Brown, who has slept and lived this play for the last two months. Through his efficient methods, all the details are being handled with clock-like precision. The other members of the general committee included Commander Thomas J. Lynch, Arthur Gedge and Lloyd Hollister.

In arranging about the reservation coupon tickets and the necessary numbered "pasteboards," Arthur Gedge served as chairman of a committee including Dr. Lynn, Robert Meloney, and Robert Bryant. Mrs. Lloyd Hollister has kindly consented to assume the responsibility of the reservation plats. By the effective system now in operation, she or one of her assistants can give you the best seats left.

Handles Job Well

In selecting the personnel for the cast and choruses, J. Endicott Bradstreet has had an extremely difficult and diplomatic job, but as you can well imagine, he has fulfilled this job very well. Mrs. Kenneth Burns and Miss Marion Dawes have assisted materially in selecting the choruses.

The posters were distributed in all the towns from Evanston to Highland Park by Ernest Campbell, chairman of the committee, assisted by O. L. Porter, Robert Hofelder and Fred Richardson.

Marcus D. Richards was chairman of the committee to elect the patrons and patronesses. The other members consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Hibbard Casselberry, Mrs. Kenneth Burns and Miss Marion Dawes.

The program committee includes John Pasier, chairman, Raymond Kloefer, C. C. Campbell and Fred Richardson. They have already enlisted the support of many North Shore merchants to the Legion cause.

Women Design Costumes

The costumes are being designed and made under the direction of Mrs. Thomas M. Brooks. Her able assistants are: Mrs. Hathaway Watson, Mrs. Montague Ferry, Mrs. E. V. L. Brown, Mrs. Cornelius Lynde, and Miss Marion Dawes. We understand that the effects will be gorgeous in every detail.

David Lasier will be stage manager, assisted by Marshall Knox and Harold Schaefer. The electrician will be H. M. Harshaw, assisted by Harold Bohnen. The properties are under the eagle eyes of E. Sawyer Smith and Dr. Frank N. Woods.

Miss Polly King undertook to enlist the usherettes and has arranged for the following: Miss Mary Williams, captain, the Misses Margery Hyatt, Harriet Childs, Willa Hamm, Marion Osten, Dorothy Root, Elizabeth Randall, Ada Boulter, Elizabeth Francoeur, and Mabel Forberg.

Lloyd Hollister took charge of the publicity, assisted by Lloyd Faxon and Ned Earle.

General Chairman Brown wishes us to express his sincere thanks and appreciation for all that these men and women have done and will do in behalf of the Winnetka Post. He wasters his thanks and

RIVALS BEST SHOWS

The reason we publish this "Legion Show News" supplement is to prove to you that "Married at Three" is not an ordinary play. We are giving you a musical show equal to any professional production in snappy lines and tuneful songs. "The more you tell, the more you sell"—we are copying here, but it's true.

MUSIC WEEK DIVERSION

It is fitting that "Married at Three," a bright, sparkling, musical play, should be shown May 7, 8, and 9 as that will conclude National Music Week. The slogan is "Give more Thought to Music." We expect to live up to this slogan 100 per cent.

COSTUMES A SPECIALTY

The costume committee met last Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hathaway Watson. The costumes will have the fine touch of several women who know how to produce big things.

PRESS SHOWS INTEREST

Did you see the fine write-up we had in "The Chicago Tribune" two weeks ago? We know the recognition of last year's production will bring out further interest from the press.

appreciation to be extended to all of the members of the Post who have volunteered to work when he called for their assistance. Words almost fail to tell the unmeasurable amount of work that has been carried on by the production staff, in addition to the actors and actresses themselves.

there. Last time they were gone. Inquiry revealed that they had crossed the Great Divide and gone West. You may be sure I was glad to know that I had done all within my power to make their last days happy.

The Winnetka Post has no regular revenue except the small dues of its members which barely pay its expenses through the year. Consequently, we call upon you at times to come to our dance and see our show. We do however claim that we give you something for your money. If you have attended our dances, or if you saw "The Gay Adventurers" last year, you will agree that they were the best possible.

We use whatever money we raise to help those who are less fortunate than ourselves and trust that you will give us the same support in this new undertaking as we have received in the past. Come over to Skokie school on May 7, 8 and 9, and then drive up and see the boys whom your attendance is going to help. We will be glad to go with you and show you through the hospital. I am sure you will say that the Winnetka Post of the American Legion is fighting a worthy cause, and you will be glad to have helped it along.

Then if, at some later date, you need us, Call! The Legion was the first organization to arrive in the Tornado zone of Southern Illinois and stayed to the last. "The American Legion Keeps the Faith."

SONGS TO FEATURE

"I Love You," "Oriental Blues," and "The Hindoo Moon" are the catchy songs. These are only three of the dozen musical numbers besides the opening choruses and finales.

BETTER BUY EARLY

We do not want you disappointed on your seats for the show on one of the three nights. We again urge you to buy early. All seats reserved.

HAS PROFESSIONAL TOUCH

"Married at Three" is a play of thrills and a fast repartee. Howard Hoyt has put into the lines and songs a real professional touch. All who come Thursday will pack the house Friday and Saturday nights with their friends.
