

FINE SCHOLARSHIP IN HONOR SOCIETY

For the first time in the history of the school the fine scholarship shown by New Trier students during their four years' course is being acknowledged by the public presentation of pins making them members of an honor society. At a special gathering held yesterday morning, in the assembly room, twenty students who have made a splendid record in scholarship were awarded pins and formed into an honor society that will set a high standard for students in the years ahead.

The society is composed of ten boys and ten girls. They are fine examples of what can be accomplished through skillful training. By their high grade of workmanship they have established a custom in the school which will be an incentive to all the other students. The names of the members of the honor society are: Francis Allen, Ogden Cook, Theodore Cox, Andrew Digre, Noble Hale, Merriman Hess, Sydney Huguenin, Malcolm Melville, Hovey Tinsman, James Weart, Jr., May D'Arcy, Gladys Fowler, Jane Kendall, Marcelle Laval, Ruth Lieber, Helen Parrish, Mary Quayle, Elizabeth Shipman, Violet Talbot and Cheryl Windes.

MISS BEEBE TO SPEAK.

At the next regular meeting of the Woman's Club on Thursday the program will be under the charge of the Educational Committee. Miss Catherine Beebe, who has done such splendid work for the Girls' League in Evanston, will talk on "Vacation Occupations."

MEN'S CLUB MEETS
MONDAY EVENING

At the meeting of the Men's club of the Congregational church, to be held at Community House, Monday evening, the subject of vocational education will be discussed.

The speakers for the evening are to be Edwin G. Cooley, former superintendent of schools, and Professor Norman G. Cogge.
