

Social Events and Personal Notice

INDIAN HILL CLUB was a picturesque scene, on Tuesday night, with its many Japanese lanterns and bonfires furnishing effective lighting surrounding the ponds and toboggans, the occasion being the Masquerade Ice Carnival. After the grand march, the guests unmasked and participated in fancy skating and tobogganing, with music furnished by a band and a hurdy-gurdy. Later, supper was served in the dining room of the clubhouse.

On Saturday evening, the regular dinner-dance will be given, an affair always anticipated by the many members.

This season's debutantes will be among the guests at the Lincoln innaugural ball, to be held at the Palmer house, this evening. The costumes to be worn will be after the fashion of our grandmothers, for hoop skirts will be much in evidence. Dinner parties will be given in the private dining rooms, before the ball, by Mrs. Arthur Ryerson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Allen Haines, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Carpenter and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Atherton. The tables will be decorated in the style of the period.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter C. Conrad, of 556 Chestnut street, entertained about one hundred guests at a dinner and reception, given at Community house, Saturday evening, to celebrate their silver wedding anniversary. Guests from out of town came from Iowa, Kenosha, Detroit and Chicago.

The Juniors of Girton school entertained the freshmen at a sleigh ride party, followed by a supper at the Tea Room, on Thursday evening.

The North Shore Dancing club gave one of a series of dances under the direction of Mr. Thomas C. Welch, at the Winnetka Woman's club, on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Zipf opened up their beautiful new home on Arbor Vitae road, Saturday evening, for a dance in honor of their son, Herbert, to sixty young people.

Mrs. S. E. Putnam celebrated her eighty-fifth birthday in the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. C. Norton, on Saturday, the 20th. Mrs. Putnam received many messages of congratulation from relatives and friends.

The Foreign Missionary Study class was entertained at the home of Mrs. John E. Bunker, on Lincoln avenue, Wednesday afternoon. This meeting was one of the most interesting of the year. Mrs. Joseph Clark, of Ikoko, Africa, who has spent twenty-five years in the Kongo Free States, gave a talk on the development of the missionary work in that region. She brought with her many articles of interest, such as cloth woven by the Africans, many kinds of jewelry, brass anklets, armlets and a heavy brass ecklace, which is worn by all African women. This necklace is a very heavy brass affair, which is heated and fastened about the necks and worn by the women for life. She also had a variety of knives, some of which are worn to war, and others that are worn at all times for the purpose of killing the large snakes which are found in their country.

Mrs. Frank W. Blatchford, of Arbor Vitae road, gave a large tea at her home, on Wednesday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. C. A. Aldrich, of Omaha, Nebraska.

The Scottish people of Winnetka are giving a dance to the North Shore Scottish people of Lake Forest, Highland Park, Kenilworth, Wilmette and Evanston, at the Winnetka Woman's club, on Friday night. Plans are being made for about 200 guests.

The third of the Winter Assemblies will be held at the Winnetka Woman's club, tomorrow evening, at 9 o'clock. Miss Julie Forrest, of Hubbard Woods, will give a dinner at her home preceding the dance. The date of the fourth and last assembly is February 12th.

Miss Harriet Buckingham, Miss Anna Holland and Miss Margaret Clinch will entertain Chicago guests house parties over the week-end.

The Winnetka Woman's club gave a very successful dancing and card party at the club, on Wednesday evening. Bridge was a feature of the evening, prizes being awarded to the winners. The next dance will be given February 28th.

Anyone eligible to the Daughters of the American Revolution can get all information and papers from Mrs. C. Young, 1060 North avenue, Hubbard Woods, with the object of forming a chapter in Winnetka.

Coal and Good Coal

At this crisis in the coal market most consumers are glad to get any kind of coal. There is a serious shortage and most dealers are thankful if they can supply their customers with any kind of coal at all.

But we have plenty of hard coal and the best part of all is that it is
