

Miss Martha Matthew Lusted

AT THE wedding of Miss Martha Matthew Lusted, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lusted of 1212 Elmwood avenue, to Warren Robin Winn of New York, son of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Winn of Evanston, the details are to be most simple. Miss Lusted has chosen to be married at St. Augustine's church, at eight o'clock, the ceremony to be read by Reverend Frank E. Wilson, rector of the church, assisted by Reverend George Craig Stuart of St. Luke's church, Evanston.

The bride, who is to be given away by her father, will be attended by her sister, Miss Ethel Lusted, as maid of honor, and by the Misses Mary Winn of Evanston, sister of the bridegroom, and Gladys Donaldson, a cousin, as bridesmaids. Jack Sturges of Detroit, Mich., will serve as best man, and the ushers will include Brook Reeves of Evanston and Edward Richardson of Wilmette.

A reception at the residence of the bride's parents will follow the ceremony, after which the young couple will leave immediately for their new home in East Orange, New York.

Owing to the Lenten ban upon social activities, a number of delightful affairs were crowded into this week honoring the young couple. The activities run something like this: On Tuesday afternoon, a kitchen shower at the home of Miss Mary Winn in Evanston; a dinner party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burt Kincaid in Rogers Park on Tuesday evening; a bridge party given by Miss Lusted's two sisters, Mrs. Ralph Walters and Mrs. William McElveen, Jr., at the former's home in Park Ridge, on Thursday; an evening bridge on the same date, at the home of Miss Carolyn Van Ness in Irving Park, and on Friday evening, Miss Gladys Donaldson will entertain at her home, 1132 Forest avenue.

A Marie Koos of 1004 Elm street was married to Mr. Charles COUBLE wedding took place Tuesday evening when Miss Cook of Pullman, Illinois, and Miss Clara Koos to Mr. Emil Erickson of Winnetka. The wedding was very simple, only very close friends being present. Mr. and Mrs. Cook will leave very soon on a honeymoon trip.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Nancy Van Dyke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Van Dyke, 118 Prospect avenue, Milwaukee, to Gilbert Scribner III of 728 Lincoln avenue. Mr. Scribner is a well known business man in Chicago and is very popular in the university circles.

NO CAUSE TO WORRY

In view of its great importance due to the existing state of war, we publish the following statement recently issued by the Department of State, Washington, D. C.:

"It having been reported to him that there is anxiety in some quarters on the part of persons residing in this country who are the subjects of foreign states lest their bank deposits or other property should be seized in the event of war between the United States and a foreign nation, the President authorizes the statement that all such fears are entirely unfounded. The Government of the United States will in no circumstances take advantage of a state of war to take possession of property to which international understandings and the recognized law of the land give it no just claim or title. It will scrupulously respect all private rights alike of its own citizens and of the subjects of foreign states."

The public will please take notice that in times of peace or state of war deposits are safe and secure in the
