SEND YOUR OLD BOOKS TO AMUSE THE CADETS

Sailors at Great Lakes Station Appreciate Old Magazines.

Have you any magazines to spare for the jackies at the naval training station? There are 8,000 of them there now and more coming in all the time and they appreciate reading matter. They do not want fashion magazines, such as some kindly folk have sent, but Popular Mechanics, Outing, the World's Work, stories of adventure, everything of the red blooded kind.

It need not matter that the magazine be old to you. It will be new to some lad who wants to find something to occupy his leisure time.

If you bring such magazines to the recruiting office in the city hall they will be taken to the Great Lakes station, where the newly established Y. M. C. A. gives the ideal method of distribution among the men.
