A WEDDING of much interest to Winnetka and Chicago society took place in Washington, D. C., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic A. Delano, Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Laura Delano, was married to James Lawrence Houghteling, son of Mrs. James L. Houghteling of 731 Prospect avenue.

Miss Margaret Houghteling, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Louise Delano, sister of the bride, were the bride's only attendants. Other members of the wedding party were William Houghteling, brother of the bridegroom; Rosecrans Baldwin, Francis P. Butler, William E. Crow, Jr., David Dangler, Alfred E. Hamill, Augustus S. Peabody, Donald M. Ryerson, Richard Crane of Washington, Livingston Mather of Cleveland and Philip T. White of Indianapolis.

The Reverend U. G. B. Pierce performed the wedding ceremony, which was followed by a wedding reception, to which only relatives and immediate friends were invited.

The official opening of Indian Hill club took place on Memorial Day, at which time an all-day golf tournament was held, with an informal luncheon and a dinner-dance in the evening. Among those who gave dinner parties were Miss Betty Hoyt, Miss Isabel Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stevenson, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Street, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Elmes, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Small and Mr. and Mrs. H. Spaulding Coffin.

The Country clubs were unanimous in holding a magnificently patriotic "at home" day Wednesday. While outdoor features were spoiled by a drizzling rain, a few paddled through the little puddles on the links. Dinner parties, at which large parties were entertained, were features of the day.

Westmoreland Country club opened the season with a dinner-dance, with excellent attendance.

Glenview Golf club celebrated its twentieth annual opening with its usual quota of dinner parties.

At Skokie it was "cherry blossom" time. Japanese decorations were carried out in both dining and living rooms. A full representation of Glencoeites, as well as other north shore residents, were present at the dinner-dance. Among those entertaining were John Witherspoon, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Stafford, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Penfield, Allen G. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Frank F. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Kent, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Page, Mr. and Mrs. Walter McKee, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Maury, Mrs. E. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Waldron, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hall, Frank McGuire and Allen G. Mills, who had twenty-four guests.

Miss Isabel Gilmore, daughter of Mrs. Arnold Gilmore, and a debutante of the early winter season, headed a group of young women who sold programs at the Herald-Tribune artists' baseball game Sunday afternoon for the benefit of the American Red Cross.

The ladies of Ridge avenue neighborhood met at the home of Mrs. Hoyt N. McClain, 258 Ridge avenue, on Tuesday afternoon, to work for Chicago Commons. Mrs. A. C. P. von Zeuner entertained the guests with several piano selections.

The Ridge avenue division will continue to meet every two weeks during the summer to do war relief work.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. W. J. Carey, Tuesday afternoon. Rev. H. G. Smith conducted the devotional program. Mrs. DeCoudres of Evanston spoke on the flower mission work. Mrs. W. C. Armstrong, former president of the union, now of St. Paul, told of the conditions in Minnesota. The members of the union are making comfort bags which contain clippings and a motherly letter. Fifty cents is given with each bag, which pays for supplying at headquarters in the Temple a Testament, thread, sewing cotton, buttons, scissors, court plaster, needles, safety pins, bandage muslin, absorbent cotton.

Mrs. Carey reported at this meeting that sixty garments had been completed and sent to the Bethesda Day nursery, for which the union has been working during the past year.

Mrs. John F. Finley of Albany, N. Y., was a guest last week at the home of her brother, Mr. William C. Boyden of Pine street.

John Brandon Guthrie of Walden road and J. Hall McIlvaine of Evanston left Tuesday night for Pittsburgh, Pa., to attend the funeral services of their uncle, George Wilkins Guthrie, late ambassador to Japan, who died in Tokio on March 5th.

Mrs. Charles M. Thomson of 576 Ash street gave an informal tea and musicale Tuesday afternoon to sixteen friends, including a number of guests from Buena Park. The table was appropriately decorated with flags and the national colors. During the afternoon Miss Louise Goble sang a number of solos, Mrs. Percival Hunter and Mrs. Holbrook gave piano solos.

On Saturday evenings, June 2, 16 and 30, Mrs. Lorenza Johnson of Winnetka will open her home, "Los Olas," for informal dancing and bridge, the receipts to go to the French wounded. No invitations will be sent out, and everybody can help the splendid cause by subscribing one dollar, the price of admission.

Mrs. Thomas Taylor, chairman of the Winnetka Red Cross organization, and Mrs. John Montgomery will have charge of the money.

The patronesses are Mesdames William C. Boyden, Mancel T. Clark, Morris L. Greeley, Frederick Greeley, James L. Houghteling, J. Allen Haines, Thomas McInerney, August Magnus, John S. Miller, Jr., Charles T. Murdock, John Montgomery, Horace H. Tenney, Thomas Taylor, Jr., and Lyman T. Walker.

Dr. and Mrs. E. T. Schildberg, 642 Ash street, spent Memorial Day as the guests of Mr. Schildberg's parents in Mendota, Illinois.

Mrs. J. C. Winship of Elm street returned to her home Wednesday from the Penoyer sanitarium in Kenosha, Wis.

SUMMER SCHOOL FOR PIANO STUDY
Introducing Electrical System for teaching keyboard, first—proceeding through this to a knowledge of Notation and Theory. Marvelously quick results, without the sacrifice of a single detail in development of musicianship.
Interest in musical work awakened in the first lesson by playing pieces. Drudgery in technic eliminated.
System unequalled for very young, from 5 to 8 years.
Has its advantages for advanced students—rapid reading and finished technic.
