

Social Happenings on the North Shore by Ruth Risley

MISS CONSTANCE TYRRELL of 645 Maple avenue, who is to become the bride of John Ritchie of Brookline, Mass., on Saturday afternoon, has chosen Miss Janet Ritchie, the bridegroom's sister, to be her maid of honor. The bridesmaids are to be the Misses Louise Otis and Augusta Fenger. The bridegroom's brother, A. Eliot Ritchie, will be the best man, and the following will be ushers: Austin D. Jenkins, Donald Carse of New York, F. Goddard Cheney and S. Bowles King. The Rev. Edwin F. Snell will read the service, which is set for 4:30 in the afternoon at the Winnetka Congregational church, and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Frederick S. Tyrrell. Only the most intimate friends of the young couple will be present.

MISS HARRIET BUCKINGHAM, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Buckingham of Winnetka, has chosen Wednesday, September 19, as the date for her marriage to Ensign John Tucker, U. S. N., son of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Metcalf of Wickford, R. I. The ceremony will be performed at half-past four at Christ church, Winnetka, and will be followed by a reception at the residence of the bride's parents.

The wedding will be a small one, and no formal invitations will be issued. Miss Buckingham has chosen Miss Catherine Casselberry and Miss Sylvia Shaw of Lake Forest as her bridesmaids, and her small nephew, Billy Elliott, and her small cousin, Gregory Durham, as pages. Hibbard Casselberry and William E. Casselberry, Jr., will be the ushers. If Mr. Metcalf's brother can get a furlough from his regiment he will serve as best man.

THE engagement is announced of Miss Eleanor Nixon Elmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Elmer of 639 Spruce street, to Henry Favill Tenney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace K. Tenney of 640 Pine street. Lieut. Tenney is in the Reserve corps now at Rockford.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES S. BARTHOLF of 535 Longwood avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy, to Ralph Dudley Cushman, 434 Greenleaf avenue.

In Rockford, a half a dozen young wives, brides of the summer's vintage, have set up housekeeping so as to be near their officer husbands and to give the latter a place of refuge in the few leisure hours which will be all that can be spared to them from the job of creating an army in six months. The Arthur Tuttle (she was Miss Margaret Houghteling) have taken and furnished a new house, in a new neighborhood, and made a most attractive home on a broad, sunny street. Nearer the center of town the Wayne Chatfield-Taylor (she was Miss Adele Blow) have leased a comfortable and pretty furnished house in North Main street. It is to be hoped, for the sake of the young people, that rumor, which reported that Lieut. Chatfield-Taylor was to be transferred to Texas, is in error.

Mrs. Frank Ogden Magie and son, William, of Winnetka, have been spending August and September at the Asquam House, Holderness, N. H. After motoring east with Mr. Magie, Mr. F. O. Magie, Jr., spent a week with his family in the White Mountains, before going to Camp Grant to take up his duties as second lieutenant of the 332nd Machine Gun Battalion. John Magie has also been with the family in the White Mountains and is now up in the Maine woods with his father for a fortnight. Miss Dorothy Magie spent the month of August at the Badger Camp, and at the present time is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Chester Alan Wardwell, of Brookline, Mass., and will later attend Miss Mary C. Wheeler's school at Providence, R. I.

Mrs. Francis R. Graham, 1139 Oakley avenue, Hubbard Woods, was hostess Monday to the thirty members of the auxiliary of the Children's South Side Free Dispensary. Mrs. Graham persuaded her fellow workers to make the trip from Chicago by motor and to pass the day with her in Hubbard Woods.

The dispensary, which is at Forty-seventh street and Union avenue, is supported entirely by the auxiliary. Children less than 15 years old receive medical attention free from the dispensary. Mrs. Arthur Heath is president of the auxiliary, Mrs. Will C. Robinson, vice president; Mrs. Lindsay Fletcher TerBush, treasurer; Mrs. G. L. Davenport, recording secretary, and Miss Edith Vissering, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. A. Hostetter and children have returned from a three months' trip to California. They returned by way of the Canadian Rockies.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Oldfather announce the marriage of their daughter, Mabel Grace, to James G. Barlow of Peoria, Ill., on Monday, September 10.

Debutantes, we fear, this season are to be very scarce, for it seems that very few of the younger set are making arrangements for their "coming out," due, most probably, to the fact that nearly all of the men have enlisted in some sort of service for their country—and great numbers of the young women are so interested in their work for the Red Cross. Although the season is still quite early, we have just the slightest hint that perhaps Miss Ruth Cowan, daughter of Mrs. W. K. Cowan of Euclid avenue, is contemplating making her debut. However, there is nothing certain as yet, and we must wait until a later date to make further announcement.

Serve your country and your neighbor by promptly sending a bundle to the old clothes department of the Relief and Aid society. Help to win this war by eliminating waste. Send clothing, left-over materials, scraps of cloth, household goods or anything that is usable, to Miss Kate Dwyer, 858 Elm street, Winnetka. Your grocer will deliver bundles without charge.

Mrs. Phelps B. Hoyt and two daughters, the Misses Emily and Betty Hoyt of 483 Sheridan road, will leave Sunday for a three weeks' visit to New York. Upon their return, they will probably move into their town house for the winter. Miss Betty Hoyt and Miss Katherine Blossom, who is also spending the month of September in the east, will take up Red Cross work at St. Luke's this winter.

At a meeting of the Indian Hill Improvement association, held on Tuesday evening, the following were elected to office for the ensuing year: George D. Wolf, president; Leonard Roach, vice-president, and D. A. Stokes, secretary and treasurer. This organization promises to be of great value to this rapidly growing section of the village, and it will be to the advantage of all Indian Hill residents to become members of the association.

Rockford, by the way, is an extremely attractive town, and is most hospitably minded towards its new neighbor, Camp Grant. When, however, the camp gets into full swing and if Gen. Barry carries out his threats, it is probable that the hours for exercising this hospitable impulse will be limited to a few on Saturday afternoons and Sundays between reveille and taps. Work, hard and unremitting, will be the order of the day at Camp Grant.

There will be a meeting of the Winnetka division of the Ravinia club on Monday morning, September 17, at the Winnetka Woman's club for the election of officers. All members are asked to be present.

Among the out-of-town guests who will visit in Winnetka over the weekend in order to attend the Tyrrell-Ritchie wedding, are Mrs. Andrew M. Ritchie and Miss Janet Ritchie of Brookline, Mass., who are to be guests of Mrs. Austin D. Jenkins on Rosewood avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Carse, Mr. Donald Carse and Mr. Elmer Williams of New York city, and Mrs. John Williams of Louisville, Ky., who will be guests of Miss Alice Williams; Miss Dorothy Clarke of Carthage, Mo., who is a guest of Mr. Charles Tyrrell, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Eliot Ritchie of Brookline, Mass., guests at the Frederick S. Tyrrell home.

Francis Butler of Winnetka, Mrs. Hermon Butler's eldest son, whose eyesight has disqualified him from more active service, has taken charge of the Y. M. C. A. work at Camp Grant—a really important field of action, as any soldier will tell you. So his wife and family are likewise planning to move to Rockford for the winter.

A special missionary meeting will be held at the Scandinavian church on Elm street on Wednesday, September 19, at eight o'clock. The meeting will be conducted by Rev. Edward Drew. A large attendance is expected.

The annual "Two Days" golf tournament at Glen View club will be held on Friday and Saturday of this week. "Two Days" is an invitation event open to members of Glen View and their guests who are 35 years of age and over.

Miss Velma Voltz, 883 Elm street, returned with her former classmate, Miss Helen Latimer, who has been spending the past two months as her guest, to her home in Cleveland, O. A number of delightful affairs were given for Miss Latimer during her visit here.

Mrs. Edgar F. Alden, 352 Linden avenue, who had planned to spend the month of September with her daughter, Miss Madeline Keeling Lucas, of Uorfolk, Va., has postponed her visit until later in the winter.

Miss Frances Hogle of Hubbard Woods left Tuesday evening for the east, to attend Bradford academy.

Among the boys who will leave September 15 to return to the University of Illinois are Norman King and John Prescott of Wilmette, and Arthur Fox of Glencoe.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Iverson, 714 Railroad avenue, announce the birth of a son, John M., Jr., on September 11. Mother and son are reported to be doing well.

Mrs. H. M. Anning, 744 Bryant avenue, will return Sunday from a trip to Rangeley Lake, Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hamberger have closed their summer home at Grand Haven, Mich., and have returned to their home at 502 Willow street.

Mrs. Bentley G. McCloud and son, Junior, have returned from a visit with Mrs. McCloud's parents in Omaha, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Bell are expected home soon from a visit in British Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank F. Fowle and family, Elm street, returned Monday from Hancock, N. H., where they have been visiting since the middle of June.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Blatchford, Jr., will return about October first from an outing at St. Joseph, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lutz on Hawthorne avenue have returned from a week's visit in Detroit, Mich.
