

Social Happenings on the North Shore by Ruth Risley

MISS MARJORIE RUGGLES LANE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis Lane of 424 Greenleaf avenue, has chosen two matrons of honor to serve at her wedding to Frank Paxton of Kansas City, Mo. They are her two sisters, who a year ago had a double wedding in the Lane home—Mrs. John Drummond Galbraith of Evanston and Mrs. John Bailey Gage of Kansas City, Mo.

Miss Marjorie Ruggles Lane.

Miss Harriet Hollingshead of Chicago is to serve as bridesmaid, and Hal Crumpton Bangs, Jr., will carry the ring.

Edwin P. Flynn of Kansas City, Mo., will serve as best man, and the ushers will be William T. Law of Kansas City, Mo.; Stephen Martin of St. Louis, John Drummond Galbraith and John Bailey Gage.

The ceremony will take place at eight-thirty o'clock on Saturday evening of this week in the Glencoe Union church, with the Rev. Douglas Cornell officiating. A reception at the Woman's Library club will follow. The young people will be at home after November first in Kansas City, Mo.

The turning of the autumn leaves is the signal for many social upheavals, not the least of which are the formal closings of the nearby country clubs, which in the case of the smaller institutions are turned into occasions of much informality, likewise hilarity.

At Indian Hill club the annual harvest home party will be held on Saturday evening, October 13, in the form of a dinner-dance. Although this affair will not officially close the season's activities, it will be one of the largest and gayest of the year.

The wedding of Miss Margaret Arthars Nash, daughter of Mrs. Richard Nash of Winnetka, to Capt. Humphrey L. Nash of Cleveland, O., took place last Saturday evening at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Richard Nash, 418 Sheridan road. On account of the serious illness of a near relative invitations were withdrawn, and the ceremony was attended by only a few relatives. Miss Margaret Nash of Cleveland and Miss Eleanor Wells, cousins of the bride, served as bridesmaids, and Miss Madelaine Nash, the bride's sister, as maid of honor.

The Kinsolving musicales held at the Blackstone last year are to be repeated at the same place this winter for the benefit of the navy. Miss Kinsolving will donate the entire profits of the series to the Great Lakes Auxiliary of the Navy Relief society, of which J. Allen Haines of Winnetka is the executive secretary.

The philanthropic department of the North Shore Catholic Woman's league gave a very successful party at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Catherine Murphy, 990 Fig street, Winnetka, last Friday evening. The winners of the prizes in bridge were Mrs. M. Dowe of Joliet, Ill., and Mrs. Mrs. M. Dowe of Joliet, Ill., and Mr. Mrs. George Hartnett of Hubbard Woods and Mr. George Kearney of Evanston; in euchre, Mrs. James Kennelly of Glencoe and Mr. James Cunningham of Chicago.

The art and literature committee of the Winnetka Woman's club has arranged for three gallery talks on "American Painting," and one on "American Sculpture," to be given by Mrs. Herman J. Hall at the Art Institute. There will be no charge for the talks except the regular admission to the institute. As it is necessary, before final arrangements can be made, to have the names of twenty-five members who will attend the first talk if possible, those interested are asked to call at once Mrs. E. N. Rhodes, chairman, or Mrs. C. D. Dallas, committee secretary. First gallery talk, Tuesday, October 30, at 2:30. Those attending the talks may take their knitting.

Miss Romaine McIlvaine, whose engagement to Lieutenant Blanchard Randall, Jr., of Baltimore was announced several weeks ago, is not to be a war bride after all. Her wedding was looked forward to as a brilliant social affair of this autumn, but she has now decided to postpone the event until the close of the war. Miss McIlvaine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Brown McIlvaine of Hubbard Woods.

Mrs. William Hibbard, Jr., of 840 Willow street, is entertaining Mrs. William Sanders Elliott of Jacksonville, Ill., who came here for the wedding last week of Ensign and Mrs. John Tucker Metcalf.

Mrs. Arthur Sweetzer (formerly Ruth Gregory), who came here from Washington for the Houghteling-Metcalf wedding, will return home this week. Her husband has been made captain in the aviation corps. Mrs. Sweetzer is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gregory, at their summer place in Highland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sherman Taylor and family, who have had a house in Winnetka for the summer, have taken the house at 31 East Division street, recently occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Ryerson, Jr., and expect to move in town about October 1. Their daughter, Miss Helen Campbell Taylor, has returned to school at Northampton, Mass.

Mrs. William Brown McIlvaine of Hubbard Woods is entertaining Mrs. Randall of Baltimore and her daughter, Miss Evelyn Randall.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Alschuler and family, who have been occupying the Neville house on East Willow street this summer, will return to Chicago on October 1.

Mrs. James Barlow, formerly Miss Mabel Oldfather of Winnetka, is making her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Oldfather, 397 Linden avenue. Mr. Barlow is with the 349th Infantry, at Camp Dodge, Ia.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howells Coffin, 675 Blackthorne road, announce the birth of a son, Robert Parker Coffin, on August 6.

The Lawrence Bainbridges have returned to their home on Walden road, after spending the summer in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Curran, 696 Prospect avenue, will return Monday from North Port, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Winship will move the first of the month from 839 Elm street to 6110 Vernon avenue, Chicago.

Mrs. Edward Yeomans of Hubbard Woods will return Monday from Central Vill, Ga.

Mrs. Neville has returned from Bay View, Mich.

The marriage of Miss Ethel Blasius of East Willow street to Lieut. Howard Blair of Peoria, Ill., will take place on Saturday afternoon, October 6, at the home of her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Paul Young, who have been in Winnetka for the summer, plan to pass the winter with Mrs. Young's parents, the Frank E. Chandlers, on Rush street.

Mesdames William O. Belt, 601 Washington avenue, and Stalham Williams, Jr., 1026 Elmwood avenue, are entertaining at luncheon and bridge this afternoon at the Skokie Country club. Covers will be laid for forty guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry K. Snider, 730 Washington avenue, are visiting in East Orange, N. J. Their daughter, Miss Eleanor Snider, is visiting friends in Omaha, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Jackson and daughter, Alice Mae, 1017 Elmwood avenue, have returned from a vacation trip, including Niagara Falls, Buffalo and Toronto.

Mrs. Ada Andrews and Miss Antoinette Pease announce the opening of studios, for piano study.

A system, beginning, in the first lesson, with the beautiful, in music and the joy in expressing it—as one would sing a song by rote. Developing the slightest musical spark in the least gifted.

Technic not a thing apart, to shatter interest in and love for music. Every technical activity associated with the musical thought. Proceeding to notation, theory and symbols, through the keyboard first, is a simple mental process—knowing through doing. Not a single detail, in the development of musicianship is sacrificed. Marvelously quick results. System unequalled for the young from 5 to 8 years.

Advantages for advanced students—rapid reading, finished technique and memorizing.

Demonstrations of the system by appointment.

Intentions mark the difference between things made to sell and things made to serve. The is a product of good intentions, good materials, good workmanship and twenty-four years experience in the application of sane engineering principles. It is built to Serve:

- One to sixty miles per hour on high gear.
- Ability to climb long, steep grades on high gear.
- More pulling power at moderate speeds and through deep mud, sand and snow than in any other 3 1/2 in. x 5 in. six-cylinder engine.
- 3 1/2 cents per mile, the average cost for tires, gasoline, oil and repairs.

Ask any Haynes owner. Twenty thousand attest the above claims.
