

Social Happenings on the North Shore by Ruth Risley

A MILITARY ball will take place this evening at Fort Sheridan, with soldiers and soldiers' wives receiving the guests. The party was arranged by Mrs. D. L. Tate, wife of Col. Tate, with Col. and Mrs. Ryan and others at the fort assisting her, and the proceeds will be given to the Army Relief society.

Among the north shore society women who will chaperone are Mrs. Hobart Chatfield-Taylor, Mrs. Arthur Meeker, Mrs. Bruce MacLeish, Mrs. Andrew MacLeish and Mrs. William G. Hibbard. About 5,000 tickets have been sold. There will be two military bands in the gymnasium, where the dance will be held, and the decorations are to be gorgeous.

An interesting wedding of Saturday afternoon was that of Miss Elizabeth Eleanor Moore, daughter of Captain and Mrs. Edwin J. Moore of Evanston, to Mr. Douglas Orwig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry I. Orwig of Winnetka. The ceremony was read by the Rev. Timothy Stone at the Fourth Presbyterian church in Chicago.

Miss Emily Orwig, a sister of the groom, was the maid of honor, and Mr. O'Brien of New York served as best man. Miss Moore's gown was of bridal satin, made with the conventional court train. She was given away by her father. The young couple have gone on their honeymoon, after which they will probably live on the Orwig fruit farm in Michigan. Miss Moore was formerly a member of the Evanston Stock company, and also worked with the Marblehead Film company.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dole Forrest of Hubbard Woods announce the engagement of their daughter, Julia Murray, to Spotwood Page Nelson of Baltimore, Md. Mr. Nelson is first sergeant in Battery B of the Maryland Field Artillery, now stationed at Anniston, Alabama.

The following clipping has been received from the Houston Daily Post of September 29, 1917:

"Distinctly unusual and decidedly romantic was the wedding ceremony Friday night in company B of the One Hundred and Eighth engineers.

Corporal Omar Porter, formerly in the employ of W. S. Hibbard, Jr., of Chicago, and Miss Bertha Deily of Winnetka, Ill., until recently a young business woman of Chicago, met two years ago. The meeting started another twentieth century romance, a romance staged in the world of business.

For the time Mr. and Mrs. Porter will live at the Rice hotel."

Sergeant Thomas Lynch and Private Dewey of Winnetka were among the guests in attendance.

The Winnetka Neighborhood circle will resume its meetings this month, beginning with the first meeting of the West End circle next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Plowman, 882 Willow street. On the same afternoon the Ridge Avenue circle will also convene at the residence of Mrs. Percy Bradstreet, 325 Ridge avenue. The Hawthorne Lane circle is also scheduled to meet on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Dudley French, 503 Hawthorne lane.

One of the largest groups sewing for the Red Cross in Winnetka meets every Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Dudley K. French, 503 Hawthorne lane. Anyone who finds it more convenient than the Parish house will receive a warm welcome and find a variety of work to be done.

Mrs. George Knox Owsley and daughter, Miss Georgiana Owsley, have been spending the fortnight with Dr. Frederick Owsley at his home in Philadelphia. They are expected to return early in the week.

Mrs. Christina Fenger is at the present time at Chestnut Hill, Mass. Mrs. E. N. Rhodes is reported to be convalescing.

Joseph Greeley, son of Mrs. Morris L. Greeley, is confined at the Evanston hospital with an injured heel, the result of an accident on his motorcycle three weeks ago. Young Greeley was turning a sharp corner and in some way his heel became caught in the chain, causing a serious injury.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Blossom and their daughter, Miss Katherine Blossom, of Hubbard Woods, and Mr. and Mrs. George Blossom, Jr., of Chicago will return today from the tour of the east.

The Mission Study class of the Woman's Society of the Congregational church will meet at the home of Mrs. L. Harrison Mettler, on Sheridan road, on Wednesday afternoon, October 10.

Mrs. Phelps B. Hoyt and daughters, the Misses Betty and Emilie, will return to their home in Winnetka this week from an extended trip through the east.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Harry Davis are residing in River Forest this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Weeks have moved from 558 Provident avenue to 549 Washington boulevard, Chicago.

Mrs. E. J. Brach, Church and Railroad, has moved to 3202 Sheridan road, Chicago, for the winter.

R. L. Lee and family have moved from 215 Ridge avenue to 1615 Sherman avenue, Evanston.

Mrs. C. H. Ashley, formerly of 969 Elm street, is now visiting in East Orange, N. J.

Mrs. W. L. Ballenger has returned to her old home at 1217 Asbury avenue in Hubbard Woods.

Mrs. Robert Grunlee of 555 Sheridan road is living in Comeauville, Pa.

Durability

The test of a motor-car is not how it runs when new—but after years of service. Haynes "Light Sixes" built three years ago are still running quietly, economically, and to the satisfaction of their original owners.
