

Social Happenings on the North Shore by Ruth Risley

ONE of the most successful by-products of the war is the Navy club of Waukegan, founded by the Chicago Woman's club and run by committees of women of nine north shore towns. The women of each community take weekly turns as hostesses to provide refreshments for the three or four hundred boys who go to the club, mainly on Saturdays and Sundays.

Mrs. Benjamin E. Page of Glencoe is chairman of the committee, and Mrs. Mary L. Hutchins represents Waukegan; Mrs. Levi B. Pond, Lake Forest; Mrs. Edward Brown, Lake Bluff; Mrs. Frederick Silber, Highland Park; Mrs. Noble Crandall, Ravinia; Mrs. Harold Ickes, Hubbard Woods; Mrs. John R. Dickinson, Winnetka; Mrs. Victor C. Sanborn, Kenilworth; Mrs. B. Frank Brown, Wilmette, and Mrs. Wirt Humphrey, Evanston.

The rent of the clubhouse has been guaranteed by Mrs. Edward L. Glaser of Glencoe, who has one of the prettiest estates in that village. Books, music and other entertainment, besides ice cream, cake and coffee, are provided for the men, and on Saturdays moving pictures, stereopticon views, concerts and recitations are given.

The club has become of increasing favor among the naval appointments, for it has solved the problem of "shore leave" for great numbers of them. Books, magazines, phonograph records and sheet music will always be welcomed, and, in fact, are solicited by the members of the committee.

Miss Dorothy Elizabeth Weart, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Weart of 278 Linden avenue, is to be married to Alden Bertrand Doyle of Cleveland, O., on Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, November 1, at Christ church. The services will be read by the Rev. Frederick Budlong of St. Peter's church, Chicago, assisted by Rev. Ashley Gerhardt of Christ church. The wedding is to be followed by a small reception at the bride's home.

Mrs. E. E. Stearns of Cleveland will be the matron of honor, and Mrs. H. H. Hoyt II of Winnetka and the Misses Eleanor Snider of Wilmette, Grace Reardon of Winnetka and Helen Doyle of Cleveland will be the bridesmaids. Little Betty Barbour of Winnetka is to be the flower girl. Jules Grant of Cleveland will be best man, and David Weart, the bride's brother; A. B. Worden, S. H. Atkinson and Charles Dean, all paymaster's at the Great Lakes Naval Training station, will be ushers. Mr. Doyle, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Doyle of Cleveland, is an assistant paymaster at Great Lakes.

A very pretty wedding is to be solemnized this Saturday evening when Miss Evelyn Isom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Isom of Kenilworth, will become the bride of Chief Yeoman John K. Coolidge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coolidge of Kenilworth.

The ceremony will take place in the Church of the Holy Comforter at 8 o'clock. The bride-to-be will have as her only attendant her sister, Mrs. George B. Calkins of Winnetka, and Frank Wellington Collidge, Jr., will serve as best man. A small reception at the Isom home will follow.

As yet no definite plans for the future have been made, as Mr. Collidge may be called for active service very soon. The bride-to-be is well known as a classic dancer, and has taken part in many of the theatricals at country houses on the north shore and participated for many seasons in the open-air performances at Ravinia.

Lieut. Lloyd Hollister, who is stationed at Camp Bowie, Fort Worth, Tex., has been appointed company commander, in charge of one of 24 companies in the 61st depot brigade, and Lieut. Frank Lemon has been appointed battalion supply officer for four companies, or about 1,000 men.

The North Shore Catholic Woman's league opened its season of activities with a reception last Thursday afternoon, Mrs. H. A. Morin, the new president, presiding.

Despite the inclement weather, a goodly number were in attendance and enjoyed the program, which included a talk on "The Duties of Club Women," by Rev. F. J. Haarth; a delightful interpretation of the Butterfly dance by Miss Margaret Gallagher of Wilmette, and a number of very pretty vocal selections, including a Japanese song in costume. A social hour closed the afternoon's entertainment. The hostesses of the day were Mesdames Morin, McCann, Williams and McGivern.

Flight Lieutenant Jack Keens of the Royal Naval Flying Corps has been visiting his uncle, Dr. Donald M. Gallie, and his cousin, Lieut. Donald M. Gallie, Jr., of 1115 Elmwood avenue, for the past week. Lieut. Keens has been flying continually on the western front for the past year, taking part in many important engagements in the air. He was severely wounded June 7th, receiving a shot through the body while engaged with the enemy 13,000 feet in the air. He is now on his way to London to report again for service.

Mrs. Hoyt N. McClain returned Monday from a visit in Georgia, with Maor H. N. McClain.

Mrs. Frank Ogden Magie returned Wednesday afternoon to her home at 735 Sheridan road from an extended trip in the east, including a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Chester Alan Wardwell, formerly Miss Henrietta Nagie. Mr. and Mrs. Wardwell are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a nine-pound daughter, Henrietta May, on Sunday, October 14th.

A home military wedding of next Saturday will be that of Miss Erminie Mathews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mathews, Jr., and Captain Sangston Hettler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hettler. The ceremony will be performed at the family residence of the bride-to-be at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of the immediate families and a few close friends. Miss Lolita Armour is to be Miss Mathews' only attendant and the bridegroom's father will officiate as best man. A number of north shore debutantes of last season will be in attendance.

The wedding of Miss Irene Mae Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Williams, and J. Harrison Murphy of Austin, took place Wednesday evening at Sacred Heart church in Hubbard Woods. Miss Helen Williams was the maid of honor and Frank Murphy was best man. Henry J. Roberts and James Murphy were ushers. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy will be at home in Austin after their wedding journey.

One of the largest events of the year at Indian Hill club was the annual harvest party held on Saturday evening of last week. Covers were laid for two hundred members and guests, all in costumes of farm and country style.

The last of the ladies' days at the club also came in the same week on the preceding Wednesday. Mrs. Hathaway Watson was elected chairman of the social department for the ensuing year. Golf was played in the morning, covers for seventy-five laid for luncheon and a large group turned out in the afternoon to play bridge.

Although the Chicago section of the Navy league has become a part of the Red Cross organization, the Winnetka Woman's branch will continue as a comfort community of the Navy league. The meetings will be held at the Parish house on Wednesday afternoons and Thursday mornings, and the work will be continued for the boys at the Great Lakes.

Prominent Chicagoans are planning to give Lieutenant John Phillip Sousa a royal reception when he appears Saturday afternoon and evening to lead the Great Lakes Navy band onto the platform at Medinah Temple. The proceeds from the concert, which is being given for the benefit of the Navy Relief society, are to be invested by that society in Liberty Loan bonds. Among those who expect to attend are Lieut. and Mrs. J. Allen Haines of Winnetka.

The Misses Betty Hoyt and Isabel Gilmore of Winnetka were among those who assisted at the first two debut teas of the season, which were given last Saturday in Lake Forest, when Miss Emily Crane Russell and Miss Marion Clow were introduced to society.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Adams of 926 Cherry street, accompanied by Miss Edith Muench and Mr. Bernard Muench of Highland Park, motored to Polo, Ill., and Rockford, over the week-end.

Mrs. E. E. Adams had as her guest at the party given at the Winnetka Woman's club on Thursday evening her three sisters, the Misses Clara Stevens and Clara Cazel of Chicago, and Ruth Cazel of Decatur, Ill., and Mrs. H. A. Brown and Miss Anna Collins of Chicago.

Mrs. J. Allen Haines of Winnetka is passing a couple of weeks at the home of her sister, Mrs. William B. Martin, in Lake Forest. Bishop Walter Taylor Sumner, who is a guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Haines during his stay for the meeting of the house of bishops, divides his time between the University club, where Lieut. Haines is staying while immersed in liberty bond work, and Lake Forest.

FOOD DISTRIBUTION is expensive at best. Plenty of food at minimum cost is nation's ideal. To "do our bit" we must help to attain this ideal. Consumer can assist merchants greatly by intelligent co-operation. Systematic planning in ordering of necessities, consideration allowing ample time to economize on expense in putting up and delivering order will help.
