DR. ALICE BARLOW-BROWN TELLS OF WORK IN FRANCE

Yor kat six o'clock on the morning of the 29th, and reached Bordeaux at midnight, September 8. We had to stand by at the mouth of the Garonne six hours for the tide. There was great excitement Saturday morning, the evening before, our convoy came for us and we felt more secure; but Thursday and Friday nights we were told to sleep with our clothes on and our life-belts near—no lights were allowed on deck. Saturday morning was a bright, sunny day; little did we realize our danger, and wondered why there was so much commotion; we had two destroyers in front and two in the rear of us; an aeroplane flying closely above us, and to the north a fleet of five vessels ready to attack. We learned a little later that a submarine had tried to get us twice, that no vessel this summer had been so closely convoyed. When we were safely in the river we all relaxed, and acknowledged the tension had been great, even though we tried not to seem so anxious, we were very happy to walk on terra firma.

The ride to Paris (second class) was pleasant. I had a fellow-traveler, a young French soldier, only twenty, who had been in the trenches two years. He had the croix de guerre for service; was in the gas seven hours. He was certainly interesting. We had two meatless and one sweetless days since coming to Paris—not allowed hot water except Saturdays and Sundays. Today the temperature has been from 64 to 68 degrees, so you see we are not suffering. We are staying here with the two women who were in Winnetka on behalf of the Orphelinat des Armees—you remember them—Miss Schofield and Miss Fels.

I shall write you soon again from Toul. In the meantime, address me in care of the A. F. of F. W., Alcazar, Rue Gabriel, Paris. My love to all, Your friend, Alice Barlow-Brown. P. S.—We are putting in our time working at the Alcazar.

At present there are seventeen men signed on each side. George O. Simpson of Oak Park is captain of one team, and Joseph Roseman of Westmoreland will lead the other.

SOCIETY

Chicago club women will be the hostesses to the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs, November 12 to 15, and plans now are well arranged for the meeting, which promises to be one of the largest ever held in point of numbers and one of the most important by reason of the numerous and varied questions that are to be presented for consideration and action.

The meetings are to be held in Sinai temple, at 46th street and Grand boulevard, a beautiful large auditorium seating 2,000, while the Sinai Center adjoining, will furnish ample room for conferences, exhibits, etc.

A program of exceptional interest has been arranged; on it will be many prominent speakers and musicians of high standing. One feature of every session will be a 15 minutes' practice in the singing of America's patriotic songs; this will be conducted by Mrs. E. L. Kellogg, state chairman of music, assisted by a good quartet, and it is hoped that every club woman will become so familiar with these songs that she can lead in the singing of them anywhere.

There will be some very delightful social features, because in these times that are so full of strenuous work and deep anxiety it seems almost necessary that there be some relaxation and cheer; so there will be held a beautiful reception that will be both educational and pleasing in the Ida Noyes hall at the University of Chicago, the largest and most beautiful gymnasium for women in the world.

There will be an evening at the Art Institute, under the direction of the state chairman of art, Mrs. James W. Parker, where there will be not only a view of the treasures of the Art Institute under the guidance of artists of Chicago, but also good music and short addresses.

At the time grand opera will be having its opening week and Tuesday evening will be set aside so that delegates who wish to attend grand opera may do so under a special rate that will be secured for them; while others will be free to attend some of the numerous interesting meetings that will be in session in different parts of the city.

During the three days' session, there will be much important business to be discussed; one important subject will be the proposed change of the state meeting from November to May and other minor changes that will necessarily follow this one. There will be serious consideration of all the subjects of legislation, social welfare and conservation that have long been the object of the federation's interest and earnest endeavor. There are also many new needs and demands on the club women occasioned by the present condition of war and to these the club women have been responding generously.

The dancing party held last evening by the Royal Neighbors at the Winnetka Woman's club was a marked success, socially as well as financially. The proceeds of the dance will go to a fund to be used by Donald Knox, a Winnetka boy, for medical treatment at a sanitarium.

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the dance included Mrs. E. E. Adams, chairman; Mrs. Cora L. Thorsen, Mrs. A. Pearson and Mrs. Alice Blackstone.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor, Jr., of Kenilworth announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Katherine, to Frank Avery Gerould, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Gerould of Evanston.

Mr. Gerould received a commission as second lieutenant at Fort Sheridan and is now stationed at Camp Grant, Rockford.

Five Junior league members, Miss Isabelle Robbins, Miss Gertrude McCarthy, Miss Isabel Gilmore, Miss Betty Hoyt and Miss Mardo Peck, will be the committee in charge of arrangements for the concerts to be given tomorrow afternoon and evening at Medinah Temple by the Great Lakes band.

The Social Dancing club held the first of its series of eight parties on Wednesday evening.

The Pine Street circle met with Mrs. J. W. F. Davies, 1004 Pine street, Tuesday afternoon, and did some sewing for the French orphans. Mrs. Allan Wolf spoke on "Registration for Women in Chicago," and Mrs. George Ogan gave a group of vocal selections.

Lieut. J. Allen Haines, 854 Prospect avenue, is executive secretary of the Navy Relief society, which gives immediate aid to widows, mothers and orphans of officers and men of the Navy and Marine Corps.

Mrs. James L. Houghteling and her family, who sublet their apartment in the city early in the spring, will remain in Winnetka for the winter.

Salvatore di Francesco is in training at Camp Grant.

A. G. Langworthy and family of 295 Ridge avenue, have moved to 945 Judson avenue, Evanston.

Mrs. W. L. Ballenger, who has been in California, has reopened her home in Hubbard Woods.

Mrs. H. L. Audeureid of Philadelphia is visiting at the home of Mrs. A. C. P. von Deumer, 648 Elder lane.

The Winnetka Woman's club will give its first dancing party of the season on Wednesday evening, October 24.
