WAR CHIEFS ISSUE LAWS ON INTERNATIONAL MAIL

A censor's label on an envelope does not imply that the writer or the addressee is under suspicion, but that its examination is thought necessary in safeguarding the Government's interests.

Under the authority of the trading-with-the-enemy act censorship of international mail has been established by the Postmaster General. The work will be conducted at New York, the Canal Zone, Porto Rico, and other places where it may be necessary.

part will not then be ended; for our great countries will remain bound together by economic ties, friends forever.

"O Americans! one word more! It is not true that France is corrupt. It is not true that a poison is instilled into her veins. No! our blood runs pure and bright as ever. Proclaim, you who know it, that our France, is great and beautiful! Hark! Louder than the roar of the cannon, greater than the sound of strife or shot, dominating the death-rattle of the wounded, and the cries of widows and mothers, do you not hear that fine French laughter, which sounds defiance to the Teutonic heaviness, the Teutonic calumnies. Clear and confident, it acclaim your fighting-men.

"Americans, all our soldiers, those who sleep forever, from the Vosges to the Channel, and those who replace them in the gloomy trenches, say to you, 'We are united forever, and it was you we awaited for the Great Victory!'"

FRANCIS CARPENTER, who is playing the title role in the Fox Kiddies Feature, "Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp" has decided that the people of the East know most about making and wearing cloths.

At first the gorgeous garments were rather irksome to him, but in a short time the little robe of tany hues that Aladdin wears seemd to him about the finest thing tha he ever had on.

What his mother insists shoul not happen is that he discard the clthes intended for the present century and his own country for those of the East when it came to ordinary home wear and when out driving.

This picture will be shown at the Evanston Strand next week, beginning Monday, December 24.

GERALDINE FARRAR WILL FEATURE HOYBURN SHOWS

Geraldine Farrar is the star of this production, playing a role wide dissimilar from her last two appearances in films, "The Woman God Forgot" and "Joan the Woman" took precedence as the greatest spectacles conceived in motion photography, while "The Devil Stone" presents a dramatic plot of tremendous intensity which is developed in a picturesque fishing village on the romantic coast of Brittany, and has its finale in New York.

Cecil DeMille produced the picture and Jeanie MacPherson wrote the scenario, which is positive assurance of the value of the production.

In the role of Martha Manot, Miss Farrar's interpretation reaches sublime heights of artistry. She is ably supported by a powerful cast, including Wallace Reid, Tully Marshall and Hobart Bosworth. The tremendous success scored by Miss Farrar in her previous photoplays, and her universal popularity, together with the unique possibilities afforded by the unusual theme for exceptional advertising and publicity, should make "The Devil Stone" one of the most discussed films ever produced.

Settings of extraordinary beauty and exquisite water scenes of the famed Breton coast make a strong appeal to all lovers of natural art.
