

Social Happenings on the North Shore by Ruth Risley

THOSE WHO MISSED THE PRESENTATION of the two Stuart Walker plays last evening at the Community House, given by the english classes of the eighth grade of the Greeley school, missed something indeed worth while. Winnetka has never before had the privilege of watching such youthful players as these, perform with comparative ease and non-affectation. The casts for both plays were well selected, and under the careful and able direction of Miss Edna Keith, everything transpired exceptionally well.

The first of the two plays, was entitled, "Six Who Pass While the Lentils Boil", and the cast included:

- Memory ..... Mary Alice Whitaker
- The Prologue ..... Philip Eisendraht
- The Device-Bearer ..... Kenneth Smart
- The Boy ..... Stanley Wheatley
- The Queen ..... Laura Emily Slosson
- The Mine ..... Sheldon Gordon
- The Milkmaid ..... Margaret Hosmer
- The Blind Man ..... Frederick Roe
- The Ballad Singer ..... Margaret De Dlay
- The Dreadful Headsman ..... Charles Ehlers
- You.....(In the Audience).

"Nevertheless", was the title of the second of the presentations, and following is a list of the cast of characters:

- A Girl ..... Janet Olmstead
- A Boy ..... Sydney Spiegel
- A Burglar ..... Theodore Madsen

GETTING TOGETHER for an hour or so in friendly fashion over tea cups, with the inspiration of beautiful music and pleasant surroundings, is good for all of us in these strenuous days. Such opportunities are offered at the Dr. Alice Barlow-Brown Tea Shop every afternoon in the week, and on Saturday afternoons, a special musical program is presented. Isn't it a joy to realize that our quarters, too, are swelling the fund? Last week, Miss Ida Gardner, soloist in the American Church in Paris, who is at present the guest of her sister, Mrs. France, in the village, most generously donated her services.

Mrs. Sydney Burnett is to sing informally in the Shop on Saturday, of this week at four o'clock.

Then again in the Gift Shop, each week something new and of interest develops. The latest use of the bookshelves, is, that after the books on two certain shelves have been purchased they will be sent to the Great Lakes Naval training station. Other shelves hold books which are to be sold in the ordinary way.

Plans are also being formulated for the sale of china, but while the exact date for this sale has not been set, any contribution of odd or broken sets will be appreciated. A baby bassionette, a high chair, a baby carriage, and a fine old fashioned chair, also several odd ends in upholstering materials are to be found in the Shop, furniture department.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. D. McIlvaine have left for Fort Sill, Okla., for a short visit with their son, Capt. John McIlvaine who incidentally, enjoys the distinction of being one of the youngest men to receive a captaincy in the recent training camp at Fort Sheridan. After a short stay there Mr. and Mrs. McIlvaine will go on to Hot Springs, returning to Chicago in time for Easter.

Mrs. Charles G. Cushing, nee Elizabeth Goodrich, will accompany Mr. and Mrs. McIlvaine to Fort Sill, where she will visit her husband, Captain Cushing, who is also stationed there.

The West Elm street Circle will meet on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Robert Walpole, 520 Provident avenue.

Miss Anne Holland, 755 Lincoln avenue, is confined to her home with measles.

Miss Nora Nyhas will spend the week-end in Milwaukee.

WOMAN'S CLUB SESSION IS REAL WAR COUNCIL

She sang informally last Saturday afternoon in the Brown Tea Shop and later in the Neighborhood Room for the jackies and their hostesses. Sunday morning, she was soloist at the Congregational church, singing the Marseillaise and later leading the audience in "The Star Spangled Banner". Her contralto voice, rich and full, was a tremendous inspiration to all who had the privilege of hearing her. Miss Gardner is on her way to the coast, where she has several engagements in California, Vancouver and British Columbia.
