

Social Happenings on the North Shore by Ruth Risley

INTEREST IN BOTH THE BROWN GIFT AND TEA SHOPS continues. The shops' thermometer registering sales, creeps steadily upward, and plans for interesting events are being matured. At the present writing the thermometer registers $1,200.

The time has come when the demand is greater than the supply in the Gift Shop. This is the housecleaning and moving season and it is hoped that the Gift Shop may be the recipient of all sorts of articles which can be spared in some Winnetka homes and are needed in others.

Many "Wants" registered on our "Wanted List", are still unsupplied. An ice box, candle sticks in pairs, both brass and glass, roller skates for boys and girls, carpeting and rugs, library scissors, and boys' pocket knives are among the articles especially sought.

Cards and other Easter attractions will be for sale in the shop during the coming week.

Mrs. Jerome Frank, of 1169 Hamptondale road, Hubbard Woods, will open her residence on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock for a reading of "Spoon River Anthology," by Edgar Lee Masters. Danny Reed will be the reader.

IT SEEMS A LITTLE SOON to begin to talk about the North Shore Music Festival, which takes place every year in Patten gymnasium along about the end of May, but in reality it is not, for even at this early date, every one of the fifty-four boxes is sold as well as a number of season tickets.

Amelita Galli-Curci, wearing her becoming new crown of eastern laurels, and Lucien Muratore himself will head the list of soloists, ably assisted by three Metropolitan stars, Leonora Sparkes, Marie Sundelius and Paul Althouse. The entire Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra will support them.

The days are May 27, 28, 30, and June 1, with concerts each evening as usual and a matinee on Saturday. At this performance the children will again demonstrate their splendid choral work, 1,500 young voices singing an Indian cantata having to do with Hiawatha's boyhood and wooing. A real Indian princess, Tsianina, in beaded buckskin and eagles' quills, will be the soloist for this feature.

The Home Mission Study class met at the home of Mrs. J. W. F. Davies, 1004 Pine street, Wednesday afternoon, March 13. Mrs. S. T. Burke was the leader for the program which consisted of a reading of "The Torch Bearers", by Mrs. Converse, and several piano selections by Mrs. Sammons. During the social hour, which followed, Mrs. Harrison Mettler read a most charming birthday poem and presented Mrs. Morris H. Lieber with a birthday gift of a wrist watch, from the Woman's society of the Congregational church. More than forty women were present to offer her congratulations.

The East Willow Street Circle spent an enjoyable afternoon Tuesday, in Evanston, with Mrs. C. E. Hall, formerly on Winnetka. The Fisher, Weeks, and Norton cars were provided for the women of the circle. Sewing for the Red Cross continued during the entertainment, which consisted of vocal and piano solos by the Misses Mera Tia, Elizabeth Beveredge, and Laura Fisher, and the reading of interesting letters from Raymond Orwig, who is in the service. This was also the celebration of Mrs. Hall's birthday anniversary.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank C. Farmer have sold their home in Hubbard Woods to Mr. and Mrs. Julian S. Nolan, of Poplar street, owing to the fact that Dr. Farmer has been called to service. He will report at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., on April first. Mrs. Farmer will accompany him as far as Hopkinsville, Ky., where she will spend a month before going to Chattanooga, to visit with the doctor. On her return she intends to make her home at the Evanston Hotel for several weeks. Dr. Farmer holds the rank of first lieutenant.

One thousand seats have been reserved in the "Sunday Tabernacle" for the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Cook County and their friends on Thursday afternoon, March 28. Admission will be at doors 25 and 26 at 1:45 p. m. Any one wishing to join the party going from Glencoe, Winnetka and Wilmette, will take the Milwaukee Electric car leaving Winnetka at 12:15 o'clock. Any further information may be obtained by calling Winnetka 518-J.

The McDowell Musical club will give a musicale on Friday evening, May 3, at the Winnetka Woman's club. Mr. Alexander Gray, baritone, will be the assisting artist. The Proceeds will go to the War Emergency Union of Winnetka.

Mrs. W. B. McIlvaine is visiting in Anniston, Ala.

The Pine Street Circle met with Mrs. Marc Newman, 582 Provident avenue, Tuesday afternoon. A program of vocal selections by Mrs. Charles Rahning, a reading by Mrs. Eugene Rummier, a talk on "Practical Gardening", by Mrs. William Joy, and the report of the delegates to the meeting of the Rosewood Circle, in February, given by Mrs. Charles Van Deursen, was enjoyed by all. The work of the afternoon consisted of sewing for the Infant Welfare society.

Mrs. George W. Blossom will return the first of next week to re-open her home in Hubbard Woods for the summer months. Since her return from the West, late last week, she has been making her home at the Blackstone Hotel, Chicago. Her daughter, Miss Katherine Blossom, is still in California.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Rhodes, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. McKinney, entertained a small group of friends of Dr. and Mrs. Frank C. Farmer's last evening, at the former's home, in honor of the departure of Dr. Farmer for southern active war duties.

Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter, who have been affiliated with the Atlantic and Pacific store, left this week for California, where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Witherspoon, who have been occupying the Woods' house, 1154 Pine street, during the past year, have gone to New York to make their future home.

Mrs. Christian Fenger and daughter Miss Augusta Fenger, expect to return to the village about April 1, after an extended visit in Boston.

Mrs. John N. Ott, of Indian Hill road, left yesterday morning, with her two eldest children, for a three week's visit in Atlantic City, N. J.

Martin Light of Leaf River, Ill., was the guest of his two daughters, the Misses Edith and Mildred Light, of 988 Elm street, on Wednesday.

Mrs. George P. Sheldon, of Greenwich, Conn., is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. George W. Gordon, of 874 North avenue.
