

Social Happenings on the North Shore by Ruth Risley

AN INTERESTING ATTRACTION at the Brown Tea Shop on Saturday afternoon of this week, at three thirty o'clock, will be the presence of Mrs. Russell Tyson, head of the Chicago Branch of the American Fund for French Wounded. Mrs. Tyson, who but recently returned from France, has a fund of interesting information to impart, and it is expected the women of the village will be eager to hear of the work in that field.

THE SPIRIT of co-operation which always prevails in Winnetka, has at no time been more pronounced than during these days of national peril. The success of the Gift Shop and the Tea Shop is typical of the spirit. Enthusiasm still continues and the Dr. Brown fund, as registered by the Shop thermometer, has nearly reached $1,500.

The Hat sale, to be opened on April 3, to continue three days, should net a generous sum. There is also to be a china and glassware sale which will take place on Wednesday, April 10, opening at ten o'clock and continuing one day, only. Contributions for this sale are solicited.

The following ticket will be voted upon at the annual meeting of the Winnetka Woman's club on Thursday, April 18.

- President, Mrs. Carrie B. Prouty.
1. vice-president, Mrs. Charles T. Mordock.
2. vice-president, Mrs. Norman K. Anderson.
Recording secretary, Mrs. Taliaferro Milton.
Corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. F. Porter.
Treasurer, Mrs. Arthur G. Freeman.
Chairmen of committees. Art and literature, Mrs. Laird Bell. Educational, Mrs. Alfred S. Alschuler. Civics and Philanthropy, Mrs. Morris L. Greeley. Social, Mrs. Charles Howells Coffin. House, Mrs. William A. Otis.
Members at large: Mrs. John R. Montgomery, Mrs. Charles S. Buell and Mrs. Leon H. Winne.

The MacDowell Musical club has completed arrangements for the Musicales to be given on the evening of May 3, at the Woman's club. A large audience is hoped for, since the proceeds are to be given to the War Emergency union of Winnetka.

The regular all-day meeting of the Woman's society of the Congregational church will be held on Wednesday, April 3. Business meeting at 11 o'clock; luncheon at 12, and the program at 1:30 o'clock. Among the speakers will be Reverend J. W. F. Davies, who is the new president of the board of directors of the Congregational school for women; and Miss Agnes Taylor, who is dean of the training school. Mrs. Harvey Brewer will furnish the music for the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Summers, of 896 Elm street, entertained with a birthday dinner on Sunday, in honor of her mother, Mrs. Blanche Bowden. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Maher and Miss Helen Maher, of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wilson, Frank Wilson, Miss Helen Bowden, William Bowden and Thomas Bowden, of Winnetka.

At the next meeting of the Winnetka Woman's club, on Thursday afternoon, April 4, a special wartime program will be presented. Mrs. Charles Hubbard will speak on the "Woman's Army Reserve", and Mrs. F. W. Harnwell will read a one act comedy. The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mesdames Charles L. Weeks, Gerald Mahoney, Charles A. Tibbals and John R. Fletcher.

The many friends of Mrs. A. G. Freeman, 651 Lincoln avenue, will regret to learn of the death of her mother, Mrs. Winterson, of Chicago, last Sunday morning. As Mrs. Freeman is quarantined with the measles, she was unable to attend the funeral services.

Mrs. W. S. Hamm and daughter, Miss Winifred Hamm, 270 Scott avenue, left Tuesday for a visit in Hempstead, New York, with Miss Hamm's fiancée, Deforse Custer. Before returning they will spend several days in Washington, D. C.

Miss M. Lillian Smedly and Miss Ruth Barr, of Lake Geneva, Wis., will be the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Lieber, 988 Elm street.

Miss Mildred Light, 988 Elm street, will spend the week-end at Leaf River, Ill.

Mrs. Phelps B. Hoyt and daughter, Miss Betty, accompanied by Mrs. Hoyt's father, Mr. Benjamin Allen, will leave this week for Atlantic City, N. J. Mrs. Hoyt expects to reopen her home, at 483 Sheridan road, May 1.

The Pi Beta Phi sorority of Northwestern university will hold a dancing party at the Winnetka Woman's club on Friday evening, April 12.

Wilford Dean, who is enlisted in the marine corps, spent a five day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis N. Dean, 781 Gordon terrace.

Mrs. William A. Otis, 644 Oak street, is spending a few days with her daughter, Miss Louise Otis, in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. J. W. Davies, 1004 Pine street, is visiting in Indianapolis, Ind.

Communication

Winnetka Weekly Talk.

Sirs:—
May I not take this opportunity to express through the columns of your paper the appreciation of that large portion of the community to whom Friday of this week will be a day of special meaning, for the action of the shopkeepers of Winnetka and Hubbard Woods, who so willingly agreed to close their stores and markets during the afternoon hours of that day. We are certain that nothing they could have done could have so effectively served to emphasize the significance that Good Friday this year has for the world. It is fitting that the great memorial of the supreme sacrifice should be made with marked emphasis in this year when tens of thousands of the youths of the free nations of the world are making their final contribution to the cause for which the Son of Man laid down His life. This action of the shopkeepers of this community has helped us all to recognize more clearly this fact.

Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard.
