

A CORNER OF THE "PLACE DU MARCHE FRANCAIS" will be transferred to the Community House green on Saturday noon, May 18. Many charming as well as prominent Winnetka women have consented to act as French market women. They will be garbed in French peasant costumes, and will wear huge blue aprons, with very deep pockets wherein they may deposit their coins, brightly colored shawls about their shoulders and dainty white sun-bonnets. You will find them seated on campstools among their baskets of seeds, plants, flowers, vegetables and everything else pertaining to a garden, sheltered from the sun by huge gay umbrellas.

Winnetka and north shore folks are asked to contribute any hothouse overflow to the market and to defer the planting of their gardens until after that date when they can purchase the seeds at this fashionable shop.

MMR. AND MRS. SAMUEL CHASE, of 3234 Sheridan road, Chicago, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Polly, to Preston C. Boyden, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Boyden, of 725 Pine street. Lieutenant Boyden is stationed at Camp Grant. Plans for the nuptials will not be completed until after the war.

A WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT of interest is that of Mrs. Luella W. Poore or Evanston, to Mr. Paul Fellows of Tilton, N. H., which took place on Wednesday afternoon at Christ Episcopal church, Reverend E. Ashley Gerhard reading the service. Only the immediate family and a few intimate friends were in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Fellows will make their home in Evanston. Mrs. Fellows has a number of friends in Winnetka and on the north shore.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Thomas Whiterby have taken a home in Winnetka for the summer months, and will occupy it upon their return from a honeymoon trip. Mrs. Whiterby was formerly Miss Edith Louise Hawkins, and became a bride on Wednesday evening at a very charming and unique rose wedding. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. Hawkins of Chicago. Mr. Whiterby is a Boston man.

The ceremony took place at St. Peter's Episcopal church. The altar and choir-loft were banked with roses in many shades of pink, and the hall and reception rooms in the home of the bride's parents were decorated with rambler rose vines and tall English rose trees. Mr. John Ritchie, 559 Arbor Vitae road, served as one of the ushers in the wedding party.

The East-Willow Street circle met with Mrs. L. M. Hamburger, 502 Willow street, this week. The work on garments for the French orphans, and also on surgical dressings, was continued and a great deal accomplished. Letters were read from Mrs. Edwin F. Snell, until recently of Winnetka, and from Miss Norton. Mrs. Miles Whitney will be the hostess in May.

A dramatic entertainment, given under the auspices of the Christian Mother's association, will be given for the benefit of the Sacred Heart parish at the Hubbard Woods hall, Wednesday evening, April 24, at 8 o'clock. Two one-act dramas entitled, "Those Dreadful Drows", a comedy, and "The Trouble at Satterlee", an amusing farce, will be presented.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Boyden, 725 Pine street, entertained at dinner last Saturday evening at Indian Hill Golf club in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Covers were laid for eighty guests. Horace C. Tenney was toastmaster for the occasion, assisted by Mr. Phillip S. Post. Mr. Boyden responded with a tribute to his bride of twenty-five years.

The old maxim says, "The early bird catches the worm". Carlton Prouty, even at this early season is spending several days of each week hunting and fishing at Fox River.

Winne. The President appointed the following women, Mrs. Barrett, Mrs. Dean and Mrs. Seynour Ballard as tellers to pass the ballots.

Red Cross Workers
The President stated that there was an urgent need for Red Cross workers at the Parish House. Winnetka's quota for the great drive for bandages is 47,000. Only 6,000 up to date have been made, therefore leaving 41,000 left to be finished within the next ten days. The bandages are for the first aid help, first line kit, with which each man should be supplied. The lack of bandages will mean the loss of life which brings home to each one of us our own responsibility. The Parish House is open every day except Saturday, also on Wednesday evenings.

The chairman announced that Mrs. Ira Couch Wood will speak at the club on May 2, on the National Child Welfare Movement. The infant mortality in Illinois is 300,000. The plan is to save 100,000 children in Illinois next year.

MasDowell Club Musical

The Mac Dowell Musical Club will give a musical for the benefit of the War Emergency Union on the evening of May 3, in the club house. An hour of dancing will follow the program. Tickets are 50c and may be had from Mrs. Harvey Brewer or at the door.

On Tuesday, May 7, will be given a dramatic entertainment and dance to swell the war fund. The proceeds will be divided between Dr. Alice Brown and the War Emergency Union.

Eat More Potatoes

Mrs. W. G. Walling called attention to the fact that the government urged the eating of more potatoes and the saving of other food stuffs. Potatoes are cheap at present.

School Election

School election is to be held Saturday, April 20, at the Horace Mann School from 2 to 6 o'clock. Everyone should vote. It is not only our civic duty but a courtesy to those who are representing us.
