

Social Happenings on the North Shore by Ruth Risley

INTERMINABLE folds of gauze
For those whom we shall never see—
Remember, when your fingers pause,
That every drop of blood to stain
This whiteness, falls for you and me,
Part of the price that keeps us free
To serve our own, that keeps us clean
From shame that other women know.
O saviours we have never seen,
Forgive us that we are so slow!—
God—if that blood should cry in vain,
And we have let our moment go!
—By Amelia Josephine Burr

THE FRENCH MARKET, in all its glorious array, opens to the public one week from tomorrow. From noon until sunset, you will be given an opportunity to purchase some very choice seeds, sprouts, and plants and flowers from a number of the famous gardens on the north shore. Aside from the mere purchasing, there will be expert gardeners from estates of Douglas Smith, Louis Kuppenheimer, Charles W. Strotz, August Magnus, William G. Hibbard and Edward Butler, to instruct those who are interested in the mysteries of gardening.

Plenty of other interesting features are planned, in which a number of prominent Winnetka women are taking part, and delightful French pastries and sweetmeats will be a-plenty.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman T. Walker, 651 Prospect avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jeanette to Horace Kent Tenney, of 640 Pine street. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mrs. Phelps B. Hoyt, 483 Sheridan road, announces the engagement of her daughter, Mae Elizabeth, to Lieutenant T. Philip Swift, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Swift of Chicago. Lieutenant Swift is stationed at Camp Grant. As yet no date for the wedding has been decided upon.

Miss Kathleen Air of the Columbia School of Music will present her pupils in an annual recital at the Winnetka Woman's club on Saturday afternoon of this week. Among those who will take part are Antoinette Lackner, Francis Stanton, Barbar Barrett, Teddy Bersbach, Margaret Emily Lynde, Lolita Seetree, Louise Lackner, Jane McKinney, Marian Stevenson, Louise Badgerow, Dorothy Dickinson, Dorothy Kuhe, Bernice Abrahamsen, Malcolm Stevenson, Betty Starr, Lucia Durand, Charlotte Picher, Marion Fulton, Elizabeth Boyden, Helen Marshall, Virginia Wallace, Susan Burlingham, Kathryn Hamilton, Mary Ott, Rosalie Rummel, Kathryn Adams, Judith Boddie, Virginia MacLeish, Beatrice Ripley, Eleanor McEwen, Marjorie Robinson, Helen Hamilton, Pauline Thompson, Colette Anderson and Margaret Boyden.

Tickets are now on sale at Kimball Hall for the Henry Booth Settlement House entertainment to be given on Friday evening, May 17, at 8 o'clock, at Kimball Hall, for the benefit of the home and war economics department of the settlement. The program will consist of two one-act plays, Donald Robertson and Miss Barbara Bever to produce one and the Henry Booth House Players the other. In addition to the plays, Mrs. Hannah Butler and Mrs. Fredericka Gerhart Downing will give groups of songs. Mrs. Butler will sing some of Mrs. Lulu Jones Downing's compositions, with Mrs. Downing at the piano.

Mrs. Fred Hubsch, Mrs. A. C. Pearson, Mrs. A. E. Tilroe, Mrs. A. J. Vollmann, Mrs. E. C. Weissenberg, Miss Leona Pearson and Miss Helen Tilroe will represent the North Shore Catholic Woman's league in the Illinois Centennial Pageant at the Auditorium Saturday afternoon and evening. They are in a French group and will be costumed as colonial dames of 1776.

Edwin S. Layman has sold his property at 1123 Ashland avenue, Hubbard Woods, to Eli B. Felsenthal. Mr. and Mrs. Layman and their daughters, Dorothy and Eleanor, are residing at the Evanston hotel. Later Mrs. Layman and her two daughters will go to Estes Park, Colo., to spend the summer.

E. P. Gowning, son of Mrs. and Mrs. J. Parker Gowning 739 Lincoln avenue, received his C. E. degree at Princeton university, and after a visit at his home, left for Camp Lee, Petersburg, Va., to enter the Engineer's Officers Training Camp for enlisted men.

Mrs. J. R. Montgomery of Green Bay road, is spending several weeks in San Francisco, Cal. She is expected to return within a fortnight or so.

Mrs. J. J. Hackney of Chicago and her daughter, Miss Louise Wallace Hackney, the well-known lecturer, have taken a studio for the summer overlooking the Skokie at the foot of Drexel avenue.
