

Social Happenings on the North Shore by Ruth Risley

THREE TIMES AS MANY BOXES could have been sold for this season at Ravinia had there been that many, is the verdict of Mrs. Bruce MacLeish, chairman of that committee. The eight boxes were all taken the day they were offered for sale.

Military color and Metropolitan artists a plenty, promise a brilliant season. Captain William Moffett and the recreational officers at the Great Lakes and Fort Sheridan are co-operating with the women of the Ravinia club in the elaborate plans which are materializing to make Ravinia the summer playground from both camps. J. Allen Haines is chairman of the advisory committee, whose business it will be to put on the wrestling and boxing matches and other sports which the boys enjoy.

MISS KATHERN BLOSSOM, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Blossom of Hubbard Woods, who has just returned from an extended trip through California and the west, is a member of a group of young society women who are to act as program venders at the all-star presentation of J. Hartley Manner's play, "Out There", in the Blackstone theater, May 24 and 25, for the Chicago chapter of the Red Cross. Among others to sell programs will be Miss Betty Hoyt, daughter of Mrs. Phelps B. Hoyt of Sheridan road.

You may help Arden Shore by saving old clothing, shoes, toys, baby carriages, cribs, etc. They are needed more than ever this year. Telephone Winnetka 67 and anything will be called for, that you may have on hand.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union met on May 20 with Mrs. J. C. Drake, 1226 Lake avenue, Wilmette. Reverend Snyder led devotions. Mrs. Vitu of Chicago spoke on work among the soldiers and sailors. The Union is making and filling a dozen comfort bags for the jackies. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Thomson at her home in Wilmette.

The new hostess house at the Great Lakes will be ready to have its grand opening and house warming in about another fortnight, for it is rapidly becoming completed and the decorating committee is busy making it a homey and attractive place.

The new house is located in Camp Perry and is larger than the old one, which is just inside the main gate of the training station. Plans are on foot to enlarge the first one, for it has become so popular with not only the visitors to the Great Lakes, but with the jackies themselves that it is far too small to accommodate the crowds that throng to it every day. On Wednesdays and Sundays, the visiting days at the station, there are usually about 2000 persons who enjoy its hospitality.

The new house will have a cafeteria and also sleeping rooms where visiting parents and relatives who receive the commandant's permission may spend the night.

The proceeds for the entertainment given at the Winnetka Woman's club a week ago by the Kenilworth players, amounted to $646. One half of this amount has been forwarded to the French Relief and the remaining half will be put into the War Chest of the Woman's club.

The East Pine Street Circle held a meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. Miller Belfield, 564 Maple avenue. The program, consisting of music and several readings was given by Mesdames Dwight C. Orcutt, Louis C. Schmid and Frederick Dickinson.

Mrs. Edward Ceomans, 1240 North avenue, and Mrs. W. D. McKenzie, 1185 Laurel avenue, were hostesses at an informal tea at their respective homes to the Winnetka Public school teachers on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. H. Wallace Beals, Mrs. Carrie Prouty and Reverend J. W. F. Davies, were representatives from the Congregational church who attended the State Association meeting of the Congregational church held the first three days of this week at Hinsdale, Ill.

Messrs. Jonas H. Madsen, 548 Fir street, and Henry R. Hale, 761 Foxdale avenue, left Thursday morning for a two days automobile trip to Starved Rock and Deer Park.

The Pine Street Circle held a meeting Thursday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. Frederick Dickinson, 1228 Scott avenue.

Mr. H. B. Michaelis has bought the property, at 809 Lincoln avenue, of Mr. A. L. Fellows.

At the annual meeting of the North Shore Catholic Woman's club the subject of an annual luncheon was discussed. Under the present conditions it was moved that we dispense with it but give a patriotic luncheon instead, the proceeds of which were to go toward the purchase of a Liberty bond. Mrs. Frank Jones kindly donated her home for the occasion but six days prior to the date set for the luncheon, a bereavement occurred in the hostesses' family which necessitated having the luncheon elsewhere. The Ouilmette Country club was secured. It is beautifully situated overlooking the lake and many guests from as far north as Waukegan and as far west as Maywood were in attendance. Considering the expense of the club and the added labor the luncheon incurred, it was a grand success. The club was beautifully decorated with the national colors and spring flowers. The success of the luncheon was attributed mainly to Mrs. H. A. Morin, president, Mrs. Frank Jones, hostess, who kindly collected donations from merchants of Wilmette and Evanston, and Mrs. N. Anderson, chairman of the house committee, who prepared the luncheon. At the speakers' table were the Reverend Fathers Lannon and Smythe, and Mrs. George Kearney, president of the Evanston Catholic Woman's club. Mrs. B. T. McGivern was toast mistress for the occasion. Miss Gavin, Mrs. Albert Frawle and Mrs. Robert Mehren were soloists.

Benefits for the American Fund for French Wounded are becoming more popular every day. Last evening, a unique affair, in the form of a War Times Party was given at Community House, and costumes of various types were to be seen. Several wore the hard times kitchen apron and sunbonnet; others appeared in old gingham dresses, faded hats and dilapidated feathers. Mrs. Frederick D. Thomas was general chairman of the affair, assisted by Mrs. Ayers Boal, and Mrs. Lawrence Howe, and Mr. Ernst von Ammons, and among those who were in attendance were Messrs. and Mesdames John Nash Ott, Horace Kent Tenney, J. Allen Haines, Goddard Cheney, Mancel T. Clarke, John R. Montgomery, Arthur Barrett, Lyman Walker, Robert Gould, James Prindisville, H. H. Barnum, M. L. H. Odea, Major and Mrs. Hoyt McLain, Dr. and Mrs. G. Anderson Aldrich, Miss Jeanette Walker and Mrs. H. K. Tenney, Jr.

The Surgical Dressings class met with Mrs. Miles Whitney, Mrs. George D. Wolf, being the assisting hostess, on Tuesday afternoon of this week. Surgical dressing were made under the direction of Mrs. Hamburger, also one dozen comfort bags were made for the jackies which will be filled. The expense of the contents of each bag is 75 cents. Miss Marie Shufflebotham rendered several delightful reading selections. Mrs. and Mrs. Charles S. Thorne, both members of the circle, celebrated their golden wedding on May 3. The June meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. L. C. Norton, 370 Walnut avenue, with Mrs. Therese Neville, acting as assisting hostess.

The McDowell Musical club of Winnetka was entertained May 13 at the home of Mrs. Mettler, 1119 Sheridan road by Mrs. Mettler and Mrs. Arthur Dean.

The treasurer, Mrs. Louis Schmid, reported $135 turned into the coffers of the War Emergency Union, the sum cleared at the musical given by the club.

The afternoon's program included the reading by Mrs. Brewer of a chapter of "Expression Through Music", by Mr. Dickinson of Oberlin College, Beethoven Overture for two pianos, by Mesdames Burlington, Kellum, Hunter and Saunders, Mrs. Burton Atwood the assisting guest, in the song, "I love my Jean", by Lulu Jones Downing; "A bag of Whistles" by Bainbridge Crist, "Esstacy", by Walter Morse Rummel, Mrs. Dean at the piano.

Mrs. Ewart played, Saint-Saens "Concerti" in G Minor, Mrs. Sammons at the second piano. Songs contained, "Tis spring on the eastern Hills", Whilpley; "Afar in the Wood", Hjerliff; "A Birthday", Huntingdon Woodman, Mrs. Dean at the piano. The quartet concluded with a two piano arrangement of "Pier Gyut Suit".

The club and guests adjourned to the dining room for a social half hour with our gracious hostesses.

Mrs. R. Floyd Clinch and daughter, Miss Margaret Clinch of Hubbard Woods, are spending several weeks at White Sulphur Springs.

Mr. Orville E. Fox of Chicago has purchased the attractive home of Mr. W. L. Eisengart at the north-east corner of Ash and Cedar streets.

Reverend James Austin Richards was called to Boston, Mass., this week to officiate at the funeral services of one of his former parishioners.

In the recent Liberty Loan drive 264 persons from the Sacred Heart parish in Hubbard Woods, subscribed to $35,000 worth of bonds.
