

These Men Opened Bob O'Link

First Match Play—W. S. Mason and Jamie Donaldson against Chick Evans and Walter W. Ross

The Bob O'Link Golf Club, under the able direction of its president, Walter W. Ross, has become a distinctive institution on the North Shore. Its 125 acres of rolling and wooded land situated southwest of Highland Park has already been the scene of several exceptional matches, one of which was played by the above well known amateur leaders.

The club is fast becoming one of the most popular along the north shore and counts several north shore residents among its members.

CALLS FOR MEN PUT QUOTA AT LOW EBB

Twenty-five Men in Draft District No. 3 Leave for Jefferson Barracks, Others May leave Soon

CALL OUT MANY FARMERS

Tillers of the soil Named To Fill Quotas in Local District

Twenty-five selective service men in draft district No. 3, left for the Jefferson Barracks, St. Louis, Missouri, last Monday evening. They, together with a group of twenty-three men who are expected to entrain for Camp Wheeler, Georgia, on Saturday, May 25, comprise the remnant of the Class I-A men in the district and include, in great part, farmers who had previously been granted extension of time to assist in the harvesting of this season's grain crops but who are called into the service at this time because of the urgent need of men for general military service.

A quiet but impressive ceremony accompanied the leave-taking of the men last Monday. Draft and Village officials, friends and relatives of the new soldiers, comprised the greater part of the farewell group at the Wilmette station of the Chicago and Northwestern Railway and the boys were given a royal send-off.

It is not expected that calls for men from this district will be forthcoming in the near future until other districts in the state, whose Class I-A is not so near the point of exhaustion, as is that of the local district, are relieved of more men.

The Red Cross

By Edgar A. Guest

I am too old to share the fight;
Too many years have com and gone
Since first I saw the morning light,
My month has been and travelled on,
I am, too old to join the line,
Far-flung today that truth shall live;
I may not die for what is fine,
But I am not too old to give.

I am not yet so old that I
Have drifted from the world apart
I still can hear the helpless cry,
And mercy still can reach my heart.
I still can share from day to day
The burden that our youth must bear,
And I thank God that I can say
The RED CROSS is my symbol there.

I am too old to bear a lance,
Across the shell-torn Flanders field
I may not go where troops advance
And death's grim terror's are revealed;
But I can hear the helpless call,
And I can serve them while I live;
And I thank God that through it all
I shall not be too old to give.

The Dandelion

As soon as balmy breezes blow,
And earth is freed of ice and snow,
Wherever there's a sunny spot—
On fields, or lawn, or vacant lot,
A dreaded wild beast doth appear,
Spreading great terror far and near.

'Tis then, armed with our sharpest knives,

We battle as though for our lives,
For fear this lion and his spawn—
Will ravage our entire lawn,
And work with unabating zest,
To rid our grounds of this great pest.

Of perseverance he's no lack,
For after our fiercest attack,
With reinforcements he'll be back,
This dandelion bright and bold,
A veritable cloth of gold.

Examined closely, I suppose—
Quite wondrous beauty he'll disclose
If only he could change his name,
And grow domestic, and quite tame,
He might win horticultural fame,
Poor dandelion!

Caddies Now Savers

Every caddy at the Westmoreland and North Shore Golf clubs is the possessor of a Thrift Card and one Thrift Stamp. The Cards and Stamps were given the boys by the club members last Saturday as a lesson in thrift. The youngsters will vie with each other in pasting the cards full of stamps during the next few weeks so that they may all be armed with a War Savings Certificate before the close of the Thrift Stamp season.
