

Social Happenings on the North Shore by Ruth Risley

AN EVENT OF INTEREST is the wedding of Miss Georgiana Owsley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Knox Owsley, to Lieutenant Leon C. Hill, Jr., assistant executive officer at the Brookfield aviation corps in Texas. The ceremony, which was performed at four o'clock on Monday afternoon, was a quiet one with only members of the family present. Reverend James Madison Stifler of Evanston officiated. Paul Harding Owsley, the youngest brother of the bride, served as best man. The bride, who was unattended, wore her mother's wedding gown of ivory satin, elaborately trimmed with a flounce of duchess and point lace, and made with a court train. The bridal veil and crown of orange blossoms completed the costume.

An impressive bit of ceremony took place at the close of the dinner, when Mrs. Hill cut the bridal cake with her grandfather's sword, which was worn throughout the Civil war by Lieutenant A. F. Dean of Evanston. Lieutenant and Mrs. Hill will make their home in San Antonio, Texas, after a short honeymoon trip.

The Friendship Circle or the Working Girl's club of Winnetka, has disbanded for the summer. The girls made over 100 knitted garments and many garments for the French refugee children this year. They gave a dance at the end of the year, sending the money they made over expenses, to the recreation fund of Battery E of the 33rd Field Artillery, now stationed at Camp Robinson, Sparta, Wis. It seemed most appropriate as many of the north shore men are in this battery. A letter of acknowledgment from the Commanding officer, Lieutenant De Loss Kahl, follows:

"In behalf of the members of Battery 'E', I wish to acknowledge the receipt of your check for a donation from the Working Girl's club, to Battery 'E'. Most of the men of this Battery originally came from the north shore and you may justly be proud of them. In spite of their loyalty and willingness to work, army life sometimes becomes irksome, because they miss some of the little comforts which the army does not provide for them. These courtesies and donations from their friends are highly appreciated by the soldiers, for it enables them to make their quarters more homelike and to provide entertainment which they otherwise would not have. It makes them feel that their efforts are appreciated and it gives an added satisfaction that the folks back home are trying to do their bit."

The Gift Shop Vegetable market, too, has become an established institution. Every Saturday morning, bright and early, the villagers come forth with their market baskets, to purchase the nice vegetables handled on Community green, the surplus of the war gardens in the Village. In fact there are calls for far more vegetables than can be supplied.

If you haven't seen some of your friends recently you are urged to meet them Saturday mornings at the market, for it is quite the fad to come in early, select your vegetables, and then have a comfortable chat in some cozy corner. The Recipe tree, too, is creating quite a sensation, and many of us are finding excellent recipes for conservation. Mrs. John Montgomery and a number of assistants will be in charge on Saturday morning of this week, and next week, Mrs. Lyman T. Walker and another committee, will take care of things.

Over in one corner of the green, underneath a bright red huge parasol, is Miss Beatrice Starr. She presides over a table of garden hats, aprons, and implements.

Remember, the proceeds of these affairs go to Dr. Brown and her work in France.

At Indian Hill club Wednesday the finals for the Woman's championship were played. Following were the results: Hoyt Cup, Miss Elizabeth Klotz defeated Mrs. H. B. Coffin, 6 and 4. Smith Cup, Mrs. J. W. Prindiville defeated Mrs. R. O. Berger, 1 up. Murray Cup, Miss Dorothy Sears defeated Mrs. W. S. Tinsman, 3 and 2. A blind bogey event for woman will be held at Skokie club on Monday, August 19. Representatives from Edgewater, Glenview, Indian Hill, Exmoor and Onwentsia clubs will play.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Aldrich, 792 Foxdale avenue, motored to Oconomowoc, Wis., over last weekend.

Miss Madeline Keeling of Norfolk, Va., is the house guest of Mrs. Edgar F. Alden, 352 Linden avenue.

The little orphans of the Dorcas Home in Evanston were entertained at a party Monday afternoon on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Smith, 435 Sheridan road. Thirty-nine boys and girls attended and had a good time. The institution was started three years ago by Miss Anne Jane Ardis, who is superintendent of the home. The number of orphans taken in by the home has so increased that it has been found necessary to enlarge the home. It is now planned to buy eight acres in Deerfield township, where adequate housing and educational facilities can be had.

Among the Winnetka people who are studying at the Columbia University, New York City, this summer are Miss Caroline Curtis, 518 Rosewood avenue teacher of the fourth grade in the public school; Miss Sarah Griswold, principal of the Elliot Elementary school; and Mr. E. N. Rhodes, 806 Linden avenue, superintendent of the public schools here.

The North End Winnetka Navy committee of the American Red Cross reports the following work completed during the month of July:

100 hospital shirts, 100 pajamas, 40 undershirts, 40 kits, 19 knitted sweaters, 36 pairs knitted socks.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Eekey have returned to their home in Chicago after visiting several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Foster Alden, 352 Linden street. Mr. Eekey is advertising manager of the Law Extension University.

A request is being made for any extra vegetables for the Jackie's suppers at Community House on Saturday evening. Anyone who wishes to donate to the cause may bring them to the Tea Room on Friday evening.

Due to the generosity of the New Trier Horticultural society, the Gift Shop realized a large sum from the sale of the prize vegetables shown at the exhibit last Friday afternoon.

Word has been received of the safe arrival overseas of Captain Frank W. Blatchford, formerly of Winnetka.

MEDICAL WORK AMONG FRENCH WOMEN PROBLEM

problem. We went to Dr. Maynard Ladd, director of our work in Meurthe Moselle, and he said, "bring the children with the mother, we will keep them in Toul until she is well and strong." That alone is a great and generous work, for it puts the family physically and financially on their feet without giving them direct charity. Is it worth while?

The women of France are good sports; they help win the war, your war, their war, and they have done so for the last four years. They have given their husbands, their boys and now are giving their health. Our Winnetka dispensary is amongst the munition workers and when a woman has handled and lifted 150 pound shells for ten hours a day or night, as they work in two shifts, besides having several babies, is it no wonder she needs medical attention.

Tuberculosis Camp

We are very sorry and unhappy to saw so, but tuberculosis is one of France's great problems. We have a great many tubercular patients. The Winnetka dispensaries give each one of them two dozen of eggs, one can of milk and a pound of cocoa a week. They also receive warm clothing. Owing to the great need for a place to care for them, Dr. Ladd has again come to our rescue; he plans to have a tubercular camp, where the people can come in the morning and rest in the sunshine all day, beside getting three good meals a day. These, my dear Mrs. Taylor, are true facts and they are to our mind worth while. It has been a great pleasure and privilege to work for the A. F. F. W., and we have most sincere co-operation from the Paris office.

We are trying our best to do you people at home justice. I have been over now almost a year and you will grant me that I crave my baby and husband, but it will be terribly hard to leave my children and women. No one can understand the psychology of the war—there is something that just takes hold of you and you feel that you must be right in it. Your boy Thorne said this very thing last night. But through it all I feel as if my baby needs me at home and my husband too. I send you a picture of an old woman who calls me her girl. Winnetka has put this old woman on her feet—she has been quite ill.

Oh, He Has a Pull.

From what we have observed, the life of a dentist seems to be just a silly grind.—Philadelphia Inquirer.
