

AIR SERVICE IS AGAIN OPEN FOR RECRUITING

Young Men of Draft Age and Skilled Men Not So Young Will Now Be Accepted

The U. S. Air Service is again open to young men in the draft. The state Council of Defense organization is aiding in the recruiting.

Those who wish to get in should volunteer quickly because civilians have had no opportunity to qualify as pilots since last March, and there are a lot of adventurous youngsters who want to take their chance in the air. The government wants for this service men to train as:

- Pilots
- Bombers.
- Observers
- Balloonists.
- Mechanics.

The qualifications for the Air Service are high. Practically half the applicants are found unfit for flying at the first examination. Others are weeded out as training progresses, for the qualified airman must not only learn to fly his machine, but must learn radio photography, bombing machine gunnery and artillery observation as well. So the government asks that only those who feel sure they can pass both the physical and the mental tests will apply.

The age limits for flyers are 18 to 30 years but youngsters under 25 are preferred. Age limits for balloonists are 18 to 45 years.

For mechanical work of the Air Service, skilled men only are sought, and skilled particularly in one or the other of these branches: Airplane mechanics cabinetmakers, chauffeurs, electricians, auto mechanics, radio operators, motorcycleists, tailors, instrument repairmen, carpenters, clerks, motor mechanics, riggers, engine repairmen, propeller makers, stenographers, machinists. The age limits for those who apply as mechanics are 18 to 55 years.

Applicants for the flying branch of the Air Service should apply to the Aviation Examining Board, 120 West Adams street, Chicago, and for the mechanical branch, to the Air Service Trade Test Board at the same address.

RED CROSS WANTS 1050 MORE DRIVERS

Major H. P. Harding Commander of Camp Scott, Chicago, the official training camp for Red Cross drivers, states that due to increased facilities at the barracks they will enlist 1,050 more men for duties overseas in France and Italy.

This section is open to men under eighteen years, or over forty-five years of age also to men in deferred classifications. It is necessary that the applicant have at least one year's driving experience.

A course of training lasting four weeks is given, consisting of mechanical training and military discipline. The training is intensive. Military discipline is upheld always. Actual work in constructing and reassembling automobiles is given. Demonstrations of all possible accidents and breakdowns are shown with the quickest method of repairing.

A driving course, which is as rough as the roughest spots in No Man's land adjoins the barracks, and the driver is required to cover this course under all conditions, at certain speeds and with certain loads.

Forty dollars a month and maintenance, including equipment, is paid after sailing; while in training, half pay and maintenance.

MISS DUNSHEE PREPARES FOR OVERSEAS SERVICE

Miss Esther A. Dunshee, daughter of the late Justice Edmund P. Dunshee, will leave Wilmette Sunday evening to take a course of instruction in New York City prior to sailing for overseas service in Y. M. C. A. canteen work.

Miss Dunshee lived here many years with her father and was active in church and social circles. She has been associated with a Chicago law office and has been admitted to the bar.

BRASSARDS FOR WOMEN WORKERS

A distinguishing mark for the woman or girl who is a worker for the Woman's Committee of the State Council of Defense, is the arm band which has just been adopted by the committees. It is of golden brown embroidered in a device from the Illinois state seal around which is the name of the organization.

The brassard may be worn only by those who have satisfactorily qualified as workers in the organization, the qualifications to be passed on by the local representatives of the Woman's committee.
