ANOTHER WINNETKA BOY MAKES SUPREME SACRIFICE

Mrs. Frank R. Fuller has received official notification, through the Red Cross, that her son, 1st Lieut. Roswell Hayes Fuller was killed in combat, September 29.

There has been much anxiety in Winnetka during the past weeks concerning his fate. Word came on October 29 that he was reported as missing, having last been seen flying over the German lines in pursuit of a Boche plane. Winnetka has been hoping each day that confirmation might come of the safety of this brave boy, so much loved in the Village and that the suspense so nobly born by his mother might be happily ended.

Winnetka, in sorrow but with pride in the spirit and achievement of this boy, now adds a fifth gold star to her service flag.

Lieutenant Fuller enlisted in the aviation corps in April 1917, being at the time a senior at Yale. He received his ground training at Champaign, and his flying training at Wilbur Wright field in Dayton, O. He had been overseas a year. For the first two months he was adjutant of the fourth wing of the provisional army in England. In France he was for six months an instructor in acrobatic flying at Issoudun. Lieut. Fuller was 23 years old. He was sent to the front shortly before the big allied attack in July, and had seen active fighting service ever since.

Lieutenant Fuller's father, the late Frank R. Fuller, was at the time of his death, three years ago, vice president of the Fuller-Morrison Drug company.

Memorial Service for Lieutenant Roswell Fuller

A memorial service for Lieutenant Roswell Fuller will be held at Christ church, Sheridan road, on Sunday, December 22, at 3 o'clock.

Are you ready to help the government in its new plan for saving food? The new window shield signs from the U. S. Food Administration may be obtained in the office of the War Emergency Union, Community House, Winnetka. Ask for them!

Latest Official Word from the Food Administration Urges Constant Saving of Food

Food conservation must continue for some time to come. Until that time the nations of Europe, now liberated from the German yoke, must be fed. While we do not foresee severe shortages (with the exception of fats) still, we can not predict what conditions will obtain in two or three months. The great civilian army that has "kept the home fires burning" must be ready for the emergency call that may come. Until then we must reduce the consumption of all foods. Rescinding of the wheat and sugar rulings does not, in the slightest degree, justify our being wasteful with those foods or with anything that sustains life.

"Eat enough to keep health and vigor—No More—Waste Nothing."

Important!

All men released from war service, are urgently requested to notify the War Emergency Union, Community

House, telephone Winnetka 1000, giving date of return and information concerning their friends in camps or overseas.

Annual Report Sacred Heart Auxiliary No. 611

The Chicago chapter of the American Red Cross granted a charter to Sacred Heart Auxiliary No. 611, December 7, 1917.

Sewing and knitting has been the work carried on by the auxiliary. During the year just ended, the sewing department turned out 250 hospital garments, including pajama suits, bed jackets, undershirts and hospital shirts, under the capable and efficient supervision of Miss Susan Alles and Miss Margaret Smith. Others deserving honorable mention are: Mrs. Catherine Murphy, Mrs. McGivern, Mrs. William Murphy, Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. McKenney, Mrs. Huebch, Mrs. Schneider and the Misses Julia Martin, Celia Klauke and Margaret Lavin.

The knitting department turned out 159 sweaters, 277 pairs socks, 16 helmets, 71 pairs wristlets, 1 scarf, 1 trench cap, 1 rifle mit making a total of 471 knitted articles. Mrs. Dennis Kloeppfer and Mrs. Margaret Phillips managed this work, cheerfully giving instructions when called on and with Mrs. Hammer and Schultz of Glencoe and Mrs. Brady of Hubbard Woods knitted the bulk of socks made by the auxiliary. The following are also worthy of mention who so splendidly volunteered their services in this special line of endeavor: the Misses Elizabeth and Margaret Dietrich, the Misses Dantonville, R. Clark, Adelaide Murphy, Helen Williams, Lena Alles, Agnes Carey, Mary Daley, Mary Roche, Mrs. Ingram and Mrs. Eisenberger.

Mrs. Thomas Bossort of 1163 Asbury avenue, donated a beautiful complete infant's layette suitable for a little princess.

The officers of the auxiliary, Mrs. Murphy, Tseke, Tilroe and consultants of the Holy Name society, Mr. Walker, Fisher and Roberts chaperoned the young ladies of the parish in entertaining 50 jackies from Great Lakes at an evening party, December 27, 1917.

Several boxes were sent to the boys at the front, through the auxiliary before the embargo was passed. March 22, 152 garments, weighing 104½ pounds, making three large boxes, were packed and shipped to the refugees.

May 25, 38 dollars and 8 cents were collected at Hubbard Woods station for the benefit of the second Red Cross War fund, and forwarded to F. Goddard Cheney, chairman, August 31. Received 25 dollars from the sale of 2 War Exposition books and forwarded to Chicago chapter.

The last week in August, 21 workers took part in the Red Cross parade in Chicago.

October 3, 80 garments, weighing 107 pounds, were packed and shipped to the Commission for Relief in Belgium at Hoboken, N. J.

Eleven Christmas boxes were packed, inspected and sent to the boys in France in November.

During the month of November, 12 sweaters and 30 hospital garments were made.

Every one is earnestly requested to assist in this noble work and help retain the reputation we have acquired overseas, as Tom Skey Hill, the Australian soldier and poet quotes: "The American Red Cross is the strongest of all—the Chicago Division the strongest of the American."

Respectfully submitted, Mrs. A. E. Tilroe, chairman, Mrs. John Fischer, secretary.

"America's Answer" to be Shown at Community House

On Sunday evening, January 5, it is planned to hold a Patriotic meeting in Community House under the auspices of the War Emergency Union, and to show the great war film, "America's Answer." This film is the second official war picture taken by the U. S. Signal Corps, A. E. F., in France.

There are epidemics of honesty, of heroism, of nobility, as well as of measles and of the "flu".
