

Social Happenings on the North Shore by Ruth Risley

CORONADO BEACH, which is one of the most popular winter resorts, is beginning to take on signs of activity, according to recent letters from there, and the cottages and bungalows on the beach are filling up rapidly. Although the military aspect of last season is somewhat dimmed, there are many officers in uniform present and the whirl of airplanes overhead is almost constant.

Among the north shore residents who are at the beach for the season are Mrs. Casey A. Wood, Captain and Mrs. Leon Hill, and Mrs. Hill's mother, Mrs. George K. Owsley, Mrs. Frank R. Fuller and Miss Phoebe Fuller, and Mrs. Arnold P. Gilmore and her daughter, Miss Isabel Gilmore of Winnetka.

At the annual meeting of the Ravinia club last Friday at the Blackstone hotel, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. Frank R. Greene of Winnetka, president; Mrs. Edgar Snow of Highland Park, first vice-president; Mrs. W. Irving Osborne of Evanston, second vice-president; Mrs. Warren J. Burke of Glencoe, recording secretary; Mrs. Mark Cresap of Kenilworth, treasurer; and Mrs. Hugh A. Foresman of Kenilworth, corresponding secretary.

Among the many attractive affairs being given for Captain A. H. Scales and other officers of the Great Lakes naval training station, was a ball held last evening at the Edgewater Beach hotel. Mrs. J. Allen Haines and Mrs. Hermon B. Butler of Winnetka, were among the patronesses for the affair.

Seemed Like Wasted Time

Markets for a short time during the war were not doing any delivering. Mary, age five, one night at bedtime was saying the Lord's prayer. Coming to the part "Deliver us from evil," she exclaimed: "Mother what is the use of praying for that, they won't deliver a thing in this town."
