

Social Happenings on the North Shore by Ruth Risley

MISS MARGARET LEDYARD FIELD, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Field of Evanston, became the bride of Mr. David C. Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Thomas of Winnetka, on Saturday evening. The wedding took place at 8:30 o'clock in the Lady chapel of the St. Luke's Episcopal church. The Reverend George Craig Stewart, rector of the church, read the marriage ceremony.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. Thomas Miller, who served as matron of honor, and Mr. Joseph Husband of Winnetka, was Mr. Thomas' best man. The ushers were Mr. John J. Peckham, Mr. Henry B. Harvey, Mr. Charles B. Field and Mr. Henry W. Eliot, Jr.

The wedding was unique in that the bride wore her mother's wedding gown of cream satin, fashioned with a handsome court train. The bridal veil was of tulle and was caught with clusters of delicate orange blossoms, the same as adorned the veil of the bride's mother. An old-fashioned bouquet of freesias completed the costume, altogether quaint and charming.

The matron of honor was gowned in cream lace and wore a large black hat. She carried lavender orchids.

Immediately after an informal reception at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas departed for the southland, where they will pass their honeymoon at Pinehurst, S. C. After March 1 they will be at home at 751 North Michigan avenue, Chicago.

Things are running along very smoothly over at the Gift Shop these days and almost daily new articles are brought in to be disposed of. Only last week two vacuum sweepers, in excellent condition, were sent in, and they are now on sale at a most reasonable price. There have been several demands lately for nice second hand clothing, such as fancy sweaters, lingerie, discarded evening dresses, and other party clothes. Business is keeping up wonderfully well, and the fund for Dr. Brown and her work is mounting higher and higher.

Mrs. Phelps B. Hoyt and Mrs. William B. McIlvaine of Winnetka, were among the patronesses at the benefit held last Sunday afternoon at the Illinois theater, for the purpose of raising funds for the furnishing and maintaining of rooms at the Chicago Osteopathic hospital. A musical program was given by Frederica Gerhardt Downing, contralto of the Chicago Grand Opera company, and by Robert McDonald, U. S. N. R. F.

Of interest in Kenilworth and the north shore is the arrival in Chicago of Captain Reed G. Landis, son of Judge Kenesaw Landis. Captain Landis is in command of the 25th aero squadron at the time of the signing of the armistice, and has passed seventeen and one-half months in active service. His engagement to Miss Marion Kechn, of Kenilworth, was announced previous to his sailing overseas.

A request comes from the Marine hospital in Chicago, for old records for the victrola, and old linen for use as tray cloths. Mrs. William H. Porter, 816 Elmwood avenue, has given her consent to call for any donations, and to see that they are taken to the hospital.

Mrs. John Tuttle Balkam left early this week to join her husband, Lieut. Balkam in St. Paul, Minn., where they expect to be located permanently. Mrs. Balkam has been a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Stanhope, 610 Ash street, for several weeks.

A meeting of the Winnetka committee of the Ravinia club will be held at the residence of Mrs. Frank R. Greene, 776 Prospect avenue, on Wednesday afternoon, February 12, at 3 o'clock, for the purpose of electing a chairman. Everyone interested is urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. John Leonard and daughters, the Misses Mary, Elizabeth and Deborah Leonard, 861 Bryant avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hopkins and daughter, Ruth, 940 Sheridan road, are at Ormond, Fla., for the late winter.

Mrs. J. Allen Haines, 854 Prospect avenue, was one of the patronesses for the dinner-dance given Thursday evening at the Edgewater Beach hotel by the naval aviation regiment at Great Lakes.

Mrs. Willoughby Walling, of Hubbard Woods, and her daughter, Miss Frederika, are registered at the Hotel Alcazar, Palm Beach, Fla.

Mrs. J. M. Bell of 964 North avenue, is spending several weeks in the east, and at present is stopping at Hotel Cumberland, New York.

On Saturday evening, February 15, the annual Junior promenade will be held in the gymnasium at Girton school.

F. F. Parsons, 518 Hawthorne lane, is in Minneapolis, Minn., this week, on a business trip.

Mrs. J. M. Curran of 696 Prospect avenue, is spending the remainder of the winter at Santa Barbara, Cal.

Friday is Red Cross Day for the Woman's Association of St. Augustine's church and members are urged to assist with the work.

A Food sale will be held at St. Augustine's Parish house on Saturday afternoon, February 8, beginning at 1 o'clock, under the auspices of the Woman's association. Mrs. Carl B. Hecker and Mrs. J. J. Siddall Jr., are hostesses for the afternoon. Donations of any home-made foods, such as cakes, cookies, doughnuts, breads and biscuits of all kinds, salads, salad dressing, jellies, preserves, and pickles may be made, by notifying either of the hostesses. The committee in charge is trying to make a feature of this Saturday afternoon Food sale, and would appreciate greatly the interest and co-operation of all the Episcopalian women in the Village. Owing to the fact that the Woman's association held no bazaar this year it is necessary to depend upon many other ways and means of raising their quota.

Lieutenant and Mrs. J. Barrett Scarborough, formerly of Evanston, have taken the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Bartlett, 1324 Elmwood avenue, for the winter months. Lieutenant Scarborough received his honorable discharge from the army, having been stationed at Camp Johnstone, Jacksonville, Fla.

The North Shore Catholic Woman's league will meet at the Winnetka Woman's club next Thursday afternoon, February 13, at 2:30 o'clock. This will be "Evanston Day." Mr. James F. Handy will be the speaker of the afternoon.

Since there is little time between now and Ash Wednesday, the Woman's Association of St. Augustine's church has deemed it advisable to postpone all arrangements for the second of the series of dancing parties until after Easter.

Arthur Braun, 629 Prairie avenue, has received his discharge from the service and returned to his home this week.

J. E. Lutz, 460 Hawthorne lane is attending the automobile show in New York City this week.

The Woolsack

The woolsack is the big red bag, without back or arms, on which the lord chancellor sits when presiding over the deliberations of the house of lords. Its origin is curious. An act was passed in Elizabeth's reign prohibiting the exportation of wool, and to keep this source of national wealth in their lordships' minds the kindergarten notion of making them sit on wool bags was tried. Silverware Opportunities

Owing to war activities in the past year, silverware manufacturers have directed sixty per cent of their output to war work, the balance being used to supply the trade with necessities. Naturally many patterns we are displaying have been discontinued and many more are difficult to obtain.

With this in mind we have decided to dispose of the entire assortment of these particular items at sharply reduced prices. Taking into consideration the steady increase in the value of silver, this is a splendid opportunity to purchase silverware at a minimum.

Bowls, Baskets, Dishes, Trays, Toilet Articles, Marmalade Jars, Salt and Pepper Sets, Smoking Accessories, Liquor Bottles, Bon Bon Dishes, Bottle Openers, Traveling Cups, Vases, Candle Sticks, Picture Frames, Pitches, Tea Pots, Coffee Pots, Cups, Novelties, Urns, Cream and Sugar Sets, Leather Goods.

days, when a new chancellor is appointed he is said to be appointed to the woolsack and to sit on the woolsack.

Site of Ancient Capital

The governor general of Korea and a party recently on tour in northern Korea discovered the site of the capital of an old Korean kingdom known as Kukuryo. This kingdom flourished at an early stage in Korean history from 37 B. C. until A. D. 668.
