The Lost Amendment

The Susan B. Anthony amendment to the federal constitution lost by one vote in the United States Senate Monday, the twenty-ninth time that it has been brought before the federal law makers of the country. It is a victory for the opposition to the extension of suffrage rights to women which ought to show its effect on the election in 1920, for there are in the United States some six million or so women who now enjoy the privilege of suffrage who are inclined in considerable proportion to hold the Democratic party responsible for the unhappy experience of the suffrage amendment in the present Congress.

There is no chance that work will cease to bring the amendment which will make the women of this country citizens as well as tax payers and there is no question of the ultimate triumph of the cause, because of its justice and the steady increasing of the weight of public opinion to that side of the suffrage question. The time that must elapse before there can be a successful issue in the federal Congress ought to shorten the period that will be necessary for the ratification by a sufficient number of states, for work in the several state legislatures continues the while effort is being spent on the national body. The people of the north, the east and the west are not going always to permit the prejudice of the southern states to control affairs in the government. The fact that the people of the states in which there is a large negro population do not wish to add to their difficulties of controlling the elections which are held in the south by the extension of the ballot to negro women as well as to negro men, is hardly worthy the position of importance that it has assumed in the nation. To permit this injustice to the white women of the rest of the country is neither right nor politic.

At the Woman's Club

The meeting of the Winnetka Woman's club was held on Thursday, February 6, the president, Mrs. Prouty, presiding. The following announcements were made:

Pupils are now being enrolled for the Art classes which are to be held in the club house. The course is 10 lessons for $5. Enough pupils have been secured to start the class, additional names can be sent to Mrs. De Lay.

The attention of the members was called to a little box on the stairway in the clubhouse, in which to put suggestions regarding any matter concerning the club. The executive board will be very glad to have it used.

Mrs. Buell announced that there would be a Community sing at the Greeley school on Monday evening, February 17, under the direction of Mrs. Kohlsaat and Mrs. Sammons. Everyone is asked to come.

An appeal was made for subscriptions for "The New Trier Echoes" by Harlam Ware.

Mrs. Morris Greeley reported that at the 10th District Federation of Women's clubs a very broad and optimistic talk was given by Mrs. John J. Arnold of the First National Bank on the international relationship that might grow out of the war.

The executive board in response to an appeal from the Country Municipalities committee, joined with them in protesting against the raise in railroad rates.

Mrs. O'Dea announced a bulletin from the Drama league recommending the play "The Masquerader" now at the Studebaker theater.

Mrs. Porter announced that the Great Lakes congress which is to be given by the "League to Enforce Peace" is to meet in Chicago on February 10 and 11.

Mrs. Morris Greeley reported that the Armenian Relief fund was $593.39 short of the quota. Since then subscriptions have come in reducing the shortage to $76.

Following these announcements the program for the afternoon was given which was a very attractive musical program in charge of Mrs. Edwin Fechheimer. Mrs. Fechheimer played two piano groups, the first being four Chopin Etudes and the second group Brahms. Mrs. von Ammon, accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Dean, sang three groups of songs.

Parent-Teacher Activities

The Parent-Teacher association have had the good fortune to secure Miss Alice Thompson, as the speaker for their mid-winter meeting which will be held on the evening of February 25, in the Skokie school hall.

The Skokie school teachers entertained the teachers from the other public schools in the Village at tea on Tuesday afternoon.

On Friday afternoon the teachers of the Horace Mann school entertained the mothers of the school children at a Valentine tea. The affair was well attended. Mrs. Goodchild told of the Horace Mann school boys who had been in the service, and of the bronze tablet which is proposed to be placed in the school in honor of the seven boys who have died in the service, namely Dinsmore Ely, Roswell Fuller, Phillip C. Starr, Courtney Campbell, Robert Mann, Haratio Powell, and Allen Hyde.

The New Trier Glee club will appear at the meeting of the Winnetka Woman's club next Thursday afternoon, under the direction of their leader, Mrs. Cotton. On this same occasion Mrs. Charles Guy Bolte will speak on the "Ella Flag Young Memorial Fund."

Captain Charles Matz is reported to be on his way home from France where he has seen six month's service.

Mr. C. E. Bridges,
1629 Orrington Ave.,
Evanston, Illinois.
Dear Mr. Bridges:

It is always a pleasure to me to receive appreciative letters from my customers for the efforts that we always put forth to satisfy them. Likewise, it is a pleasure to write letters to those whom we deal with who have successfully used their efforts to please me.

In the first place, I cannot say enough for the FRANKLIN-SEDAN which I purchased from you about two weeks ago. It has run perfectly during the one thousand miles that I have driven, and as per your request, I am delivering the car to you to-day, in order that your mechanic may look it over thoroughly to see that everything is in proper condition.

I appreciate the interest and service you are rendering, and while I do not expect to purchase another car soon, will not hesitate to recommend any of my friends who are in the market for a car, to you.

Wishing you every success which you deserve, and with best wishes, I am

Very truly yours,

F. C. AIKEN
