

Social Happenings on the North Shore by Ruth Risley

A GROUP OF NORTH SHORE WOMEN are arranging an entertainment to be given Saturday evening, May 3, at the Winnetka Woman's club for the benefit of the Henry Booth house, a social settlement in West Fourteenth place, in which many well known women are interested. Mrs. M. R. Kultchar is head resident of the settlement and is on the committee in charge of the entertainment, which will be one of the most important affairs of the post-Lenten season.

Mrs. J. Allen Haines, Mrs. Merritt Starr, Mrs. T. Philip Swift, Miss Ruth Matz, Miss Augusta Fenger, Mrs. James Porter, Mrs. George J. Farnsworth, Mrs. Benjamin Carpenter, and Mrs. William O. Green are also on the committee.

The Junior League Players, consisting of Miss Marion Farnsworth, Miss Lucretia Green, Miss Mary Rend, Miss Louise Thorne, Miss Florence Folds and Miss Eileen Kelly, will give John Kendrick Bangs' playlet, "The Worst Man," and the Henry Booth House Players will present Yeats' play, "The Land of the Heart's Desire." Following the two plays there will be a dance.

The annual meeting of the Winnetka Woman's club, will be held in the clubhouse, Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, a little earlier than the usual meeting hour. In addition to the reports and election of officers there will be some good music in charge of Mrs. Harvey Brewer, and an especially attractive social hour, with a farewell to the retiring officers.

Of interest on the north shore is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Hazel Evelyn Wickum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wickum, of Chicago, to Elmer E. Nilles, of Evanston. Mr. Nilles formerly attended New Trier High school, and had a wide acquaintance among the younger set.

The Apollo Musical club, of which Mr. Charles S. Jackson, 1195 Asbury avenue, Hubbard Woods, is president, will sing a memorial service at the Auditorium on Sunday, April 13, at 3:30 o'clock for those who have died during the war. Musical societies throughout the United States are to do the same thing on this day. The work selected to be sung is Vedi's "Requiem." The Chicago Symphony orchestra will accompany, and at the close of the "Requiem" soldiers from the French, English, Italian and Belgium armies will bring the colors of their respective countries on the stage. At this time, their various national airs will be sung, the audience being invited to join in the singing. Then will come our own flag and the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

The consuls of these various countries have accepted invitations to be present. Their boxes will be decorated with their national colors. Governor Lowden, General Wood, and Captain Bassett will be present also. It is a surety that this will be not only a splendid musical afternoon but their most enthusiastic affair that has ever been given in Chicago. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Tickets may be secured at Lyon and Healy's.
