LITTLE MARY BACK AT THE HOYBURN NEXT WEEK

Mary Pickford, who has not appeared in films for several months because of illness and special service in connection with war loan campaigns is again delighting film fans in a new version entitled, "Captain Kidd Jr." "Little Mary" appears at the Hoyburn theater, Evanston, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. An added attraction on Wednesday will be Houdini in "The Master Mystery."

On Thursday Louis Huff and Johnny Hines will be the stellar attractions, appearing in "The Little Inlander."

John Barrymore will head the bill on Friday in "The Test of Honor." Shirley Mason in, "The Rescuing Angel," will wind up the week's features on the program.

M'CONATHY ATTENDS SESSION IN ST. LOUIS

The twelfth annual meeting of the Music Supervisors' national conference, of which Professor Osbourne McConathy of the Northwestern music school and director of Community singing at the Sunday Evening club, began in St. Louis, Mo., Monday and will continue until Friday, with headquarters at the Hotel Statler.

The addresses and discussions which are included in the program are centered around the theory that every child should be educated in music according to his natural capacities, at public expense, and his studies should function in the musical life of the community.

On Thursday evening the Music Supervisors' national chorus, assisted by the St. Louis Symphony orchestra,
