FALLS FROM TRAIN; DIES IN AMBULANCE

William E. Merriman, 38 years old, 1224 Chicago avenue, Evanston, died Saturday evening in an ambulance on the way to the Evanston hospital, after being fatally injured while getting off a moving train at Indian Hill station.

At the inquest held Monday at Hebblethwaite's undertaking rooms, the testimony of brakeman Charles Ray was to the effect that the deceased had slept through Evanston, where he intended to leave the train and that he awoke just as the train was leaving the Indian Hill station.
Thoughtlessly he ran for the rear door of the rear coach.

Ran From Train

The brakeman and the conductor, saw the man fall as they boarded the train and immediately signalled the train to be stopped. When they rushed back to his assistance he was found unconscious lying across the tracks. He was taken to the Winnetka station and left in the care of the brakeman, who called for a physician, and Mrs. Margaret Levick immediately ordered an ambulance.

The injury occurred about 10:30 o'clock and he died shortly before 12 o'clock while in the ambulance. He was suffering from severe scalp wounds and it is thought he died from concussion of the brain.

Twenty Years With Road

Mr. Merriman had been employed for the past twenty years by the Chicago and Northwestern railroad and recently had been promoted to assistant chief clerk at the ticket auditor's offices in Ravenswood. During the afternoon he had been shopping with Miss Agnes Airth, at whose home he boarded. The evening of his death he had arranged to meet Philip Larkin, a fellow employe, at the railroad station. Merriman was a member of the Elks and was well known on the north shore where he lived all of his life.

Three brothers and four sisters survive him. They are Clem, Thomas and George Merriman of Highland Park; Mrs. Emory Shaft of Milwaukee, Mrs. Emma Fuerer, Racine, Wis., Mrs. Julia White, Chicago, Mrs. Thomas Duffy, Deerfield.

Artistic Judge

Searchlight Strength

There are some searchlights on the British battleships that throw out a light so strong and brilliant that a person 18 miles away could see perfectly well to read the paper by it.

Lack of Training

Katherine's parents are trying to teach her politeness, although she is only four years old. As a result she watches opportunities to use "Scuse me" and "Please." The other day she watched mother as she rocked her year-old brother. Finally the little brother hiccupped. Katherine waited expectantly but in vain. Finally she could stand it no longer. "Mud-der," she said, indignantly, "Bub ought to be sense enough to say "Scuse me."
