"DOUG" AND MARY HOYBURN STARS ALL NEXT WEEK

Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford are to have the Hoyburn theater all to themselves next week in their latest productions.

Fairbanks will start the week with the popular "Knickerbocker Buckaroo." The film will have a three day run, May 26, 27 and 28 and promises to be one of the big hits of the summer season at the Hoyburn. "Doug," who, with Miss Pickford and Charles Chaplin, has been doing some government propaganda filming, will be welcomed back into his own characterizations by all his ardent film followers.

"Little Mary" who appeared recently at the Hoyburn in "Captain Kidd, Jr.," will be the attraction on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 29, 30 and 31, in "Daddy Long Legs," a picturization of Jean Webster's celebrated story and play of that title. The film is said to present Miss Pickford at her best in a role especially suited to her artistry.

Intelligent Dog

The family doctor was making a professional call one afternoon, when Johnny, who happened to be the patient on this occasion, suddenly gave a chuckle just as the physician had completed his examination and remarked in a half confidential whisper: "Say, just look at my doggy! I guess he knows you're a doctor, all right. He's got his tongue out."
