

GAME ANNOUNCED FOR DECORATION DAY; BIG CROWD URGED TO COME

The Wilmette Orioles will hook up with Lake Forest nine Friday afternoon at the New Trier High school diamond at Kenilworth.

Several weeks ago Lake Forest defeated the local birds 5 to 4 in ten innings of good baseball. A new man will receive for hurler Rapp on Friday, which will enable the local man to put all he has on the ball.

Two weeks ago Rapp pitched a no-hit no-run game against a Chicago team which gives the local team an average of .500.

Otto Steudeur, of Wilmette avenue, this week was appointed manager of the team. He is rated as a clever player, having played with the Gross Point team years ago when it was in its prime.

A good game is not only expected but promised to those who are willing to come out and show their spirit on Friday.
