

Social Happenings on the North Shore by Ruth Risley

A LOVELY WEDDING was solemnized last Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, when Miss Jeanette Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Thomas Walker, Jr., was united in marriage to Horace Kent Tenney, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Kent Tenney, at the residence of her parents on Prospect avenue. Reverend E. Ashley Gerhard read the service. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Marion Emily Walker, and by Mrs. Henry Favill Tenney. Henry Favill Tenney served his brother as best man and the ushers included Richard Bentley, Roy West, Stephen Gregory and Goddard Cheney. Little Eleanor and Frederick Cheney, niece and nephew of the bridegroom, were the flower bearers.

MISS KATHARINE BLOSSOM, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Blossom of Hubbard Woods, who will be married to William Sutherland Bacon, son of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Bacon of Macomb, Illinois, on Saturday, June 28, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in Christ's church, Winnetka, will have her sister-in-law, Mrs. George W. Blossom, Jr., for matron of honor. Serving Miss Blossom as bridesmaids will be Miss Helen Hoyne, Miss Blance Day, Miss Lolita Armour, Mrs. T. Philip Swift, Mrs. William H. Mitchell, Mrs. Charles McAlpin Pyle, Miss Louise Thorne, Miss Janet Pauling and Miss Dorothy Bacon. William Ross Proctor, Jr., of New York will attend Mr. Bacon. Following the wedding there will be a reception at the residence of the bride's parents, 955 Green Bay road.

Last Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the Church of the Holy Name in Swampscott, Mass., Miss Claire Dutton McGregor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McGregor of Swampscott, became the bride of Charles Henderson Matz, son of Mrs. Rudolph Matz of "Wynnecliff," Hubbard Woods. The bride was attended by Miss Gertrude Robinson of Beach Bluff, Mass., and Mr. Matz had Edward Redfield of Englewood, N. J., for his best man. Serving as ushers were the Messrs. Carl Victor, Alexander McGregor, Jr., Farrell Boyd, Stanton Garfield, Henry Dwight and Edwin Adriance.

The bride wore white satin and princess lace, with a veil of the same, which is an heirloom, held in place with orange blossoms. The bouquet was composed of lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore a chiffon gown of pastel shades with a large hat of the same coloring. She carried a bunch of sweet peas. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the country club.

After a motor trip the bride and groom will make their home in Evanston.

SETS THE PACE
Twenty-first Year

The purchaser of an Oldsmobile has a distinct advantage. He may have strongly defined ideas of preference for either an eight or a six cylinder car. Yet in either case he need not relinquish the principal idea, the possession of an Oldsmobile. The construction of the Oldsmobile, the service it renders and its moderate cost coincide with the spirit of the times.
