ATTACKS HORSE WITH PITCHFORK; DRAWS $200 FINE

"Two hundred dollars and costs, and I am only sorry that the city ordinances do not provide for a bigger fine. This is the most cruel and heartless attack against any dumb animal which has ever come before me in this court," was the statement of Justice John F. Boyer of Evanston Monday morning at the hearing of the charges against Charles Holtz, 2622 Reese avenue, Evanston, a farmer.

Holtz was arrested last Saturday evening on the complaint of F. J. McComber, 2909 Central street, Evanston. In court McComber testified, his testimony was corroborated by a witness and policeman, that Holtz had stabbed his horse with a hay fork twenty times, making eighty wounds in the horse. Holtz admitted having been drinking in the afternoon before he reached home and said that he had difficulty in catching the horse after he unhitched him.

EFFICIENCY TO DETERMINE SCHOOL TEACHERS' PAY

For the third year of experience an additional $15.

For the fourth year of experience an additional $10.

For each of the next ten years of experience an additional $5.

For each year of experience beyond the first fourteen an additional $2.50.

For each of the first five years experience in Winnetka an additional $5.

For each year of experience in Winnetka thereafter an additional $2.50.

For each year of training beyond the two-year normal or collegiate course, (see note below) an additional $60.

Supplementary Schedule

The salary of a principal will be $100 higher than indicated by the above general schedule.

The salaries of supervisors of art, music, and science will be $150 higher than indicated by the above general schedule.

Efficiency ratings will be based chiefly on improvement in pupils' work as shown by superintendent's tests. The superintendent's judgment, as to the discipline, spirit, and co-operation will also be taken into consideration. He will discuss his tentative rating in these regards with each teacher at least three times during the year, giving his reasons. Ratings will be A, B, C, and D. Teachers will not be eligible for a rating of either A or B unless they have read at least two professional books and two professional journals during the year. A rating of C will carry no increase of salary for efficiency. A rating of D will result in dismissal.

Beginning in September, 1920, those teachers who have received an efficiency rating for A for the preceding year will receive $50 in addition to the salary as indicated by the general schedule. This $50 will remain a part of their salary as long as they retain an efficiency rating of A. Should their efficiency rating drop to B, $25 of this will be deducted for the following year. Should their rating drop to C, the whole $50 will be deducted the following year.

Beginning September, 1920, those teachers who have received an efficiency rating of B for the preceding year will receive $25 in addition to the salary as indicated by the general schedule. This $25 will remain a part of their salaries as long as they retain an efficiency rating of B. Should their rating drop to C, this $25 will be deducted from their salary the following year. But should it rise to A, this $25 will be increased to $50 the following year.

Note: Additional training: A year of additional training means the equivalent of 9 majors, University of Chicago. Work must be regularly recorded in an accredited university, college, or normal school. Salary increases for such work will be given beginning with the school year following the course taken. Teachers doing summer school work must notify the superintendent of schools of their intention to do so before July 1 in order to receive credit for same during the school year immediately following.

SHERIFFS CLEAN UP GROSS POINT'S WET DISTRICT; 30 TAKEN

Three alleged blind pigs in Gross Point were raided early Tuesday evening by 20 men from Sheriff Peters' office under the direction of Deputy Sheriff A. Thoney. The raiders made their first stop at an alleged blind pig in the basement of the Henry Zeuschel residence in Lake avenue. A quantity of liquor was confiscated and 20 men, including the owner were taken into custody. The Eagle's club on Ridge avenue was the next objective of the sheriffs. Here 4 men and the keeper were seized and the place cleared of all wet goods excepting some "draft" beer and soft drinks.

Samuel Thalmán was the third "keeper" to feel the jolt of the law. Four customers accompanied him to the Bar of Justice Here also considerable evidence in hard liquor was packed away by Thoney's men.

The men were taken before Justice Mickey at Wilmette police headquarters where bonds were readily provided by friends who followed the automobile procession to the Village hall. The defendants were to appear today for hearing before Justice Frank A. McKee of Oak Park.
